Languages in the Media Kristina Bedijs, Christiane Maaß, 2017-09-25 This manual provides an extensive overview of the importance and use of Romance languages in the media both in a diachronic and synchronic perspective Its chapters discuss language in television and the new media the language of advertising or special cases such as translation platforms or subtitling Separate chapters are dedicated to minority languages and smaller varieties such as Galician and Picard and to methodological approaches such as linguistic discourse analysis and writing process research Videotex and Teletext

Michael B. Binder, 1985 Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia Enqi Weng, 2019-12-05 This volume explores the contradiction between the news coverage given to issues of religion particularly since 2001 in relation to issues such as terrorism politics security and gender and the fact of its apparent decline according to Census data Based on media research in Australia and offering comparisons with the UK the author demonstrates that media discussions overlook the diversity that exists within religions particularly the country s main religion Christianity and presents religion according to specific interpretations shaped by race class and gender which in turn result in very limited understandings of religion itself Drawing on understandings of the sacred as a non negotiable value present in religious and secular form Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia calls for a broader sociological perspective on religion and will appeal to scholars of sociology and media studies with interests in religion and public life Television/radio Age ,1987 The Home Satellite TV
