

The book cover features a collage of historical and cultural images. At the top left is a portrait of George Washington. Next to it is a portrait of a smiling woman. To the right is a portrait of a woman in a blue dress. Below these are a portrait of a young girl, a portrait of a soldier in a green helmet, and a portrait of a Native American man with a feathered headdress. In the center is a portrait of Abraham Lincoln. At the bottom are portraits of a man in a white shirt, a woman in a white dress, a man in a white shirt, and a portrait of Thomas Jefferson.

Broussard, 1998 This book illuminates the professional career and private lives of J McCants Stewart a Reconstruction era lawyer minister politician and political activist and his descendants over three generations providing an epic account of an African American family in America Adapted from book jacket The African-American Odyssey: Since 1865 Darlene Clark Hine, William C. Hine, Stanley Harrold, 2003 This book is the first comprehensive survey of the African American experience It draws on recent research to present black history in a clear and direct manner within a broad social cultural and political framework White supremacy the Great Depression the building of black community institutions the equal rights movement and African American military service For anyone who is interested in an in depth exploration of African American history as it relates to U S history American Odyssey, 2000 A history of the United States in the twentieth century featuring sociological and cultural events as well as strictly historical and using many pertinent literary excerpts Rethinking Our Classrooms, Volume 1, From Uncle Tom's Cabin to The Help C. Garcia, V. Young, C. Pimentel, 2014-08-13 This book surveys the cultural literary and cinematic impact of white authored films and imaginative literature on American society from Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin to Kathryn Stockett's The Help

Rethinking Our Classrooms Wayne Au, Bill Bigelow, Stan Karp, 2007 Since the first edition was published in 1994 Rethinking Our Classrooms has sold over 180 000 copies World Yearbook of Education 2011 Lyn Yates, Madeleine Grumet, 2011-02-01 How do curriculum conceptions of knowledge and the schooling experiences of young people engage the great issues of this tumultuous time Curriculum is always influenced by the events that shape our world but when testing and benchmarking preoccupy us we can forget the world that is both the foundation and the object of curriculum This edited volume brings together international contributors to analyze and reflect on the way the events of the last decade have influenced the curriculum in their countries As they address nationalism in the face of economic globalisation the international financial crisis immigration and the culture of diaspora they ask how national loyalties are balanced with international relationships and interests They ask how the rights of women and of ethnic and racial groups are represented They ask what has changed about history and civics post 9 11 and they ask how countries that have experienced profound political and economic changes have addressed them in curriculum These interactions and changes are a subject of particular interest for an international yearbook in that they are almost always permeated by global movements and influenced by multinational bodies and practices And as these essays show in curriculum global and international issues are explicitly or implicitly also about local and national interests and about how citizens engage their rights and responsibilities This volume brings together a new approach to perspectives on curriculum today and a new collection of insights into the changes from different parts of the world which discuss How is the world represented in curriculum How do responses to world events shape the stories we tell students about who they are and can be This book will be of great benefit to educational researchers and policy makers as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students American Odyssey
