Technology Knowledge Transfer In China:

Technology and Knowledge Transfer in China Richard Li-Hua,2004 Examines and addresses the key elements of how to achieve successful technology transfer      Competitiveness of Chinese Firms R. Li-Hua,2014-11-05 This book addresses the multi facet competitiveness of firms in China from an angle of strategic management of technology and innovation The Chinese vanguard companies have been excellent in identifying strategic position and appropriately making strategic decisions and effectively making strategy in action      Innovation and Regional Development in China Ingo

Liefner,Yehua Dennis Wei,2013-07-24 Although China is now the factory of the world there is no reason to expect that it will always be content with manufacturing labor intensive goods for foreign corporations Scholars must now ask What is the current level of innovation in China And how can we face this challenge and renovate industrial production and innovation capacities in developed countries This edited volume investigates the unique characteristics of Chinese innovation and regional development China s policy framework and the role that transnational corporations play in China s increasing innovation activities This book contributes to the heated debate regarding pathways for technology progress and regional development in developing countries and identifies the ways in which local production networks respond to different configurations of external linkages Linking patterns of global and local production networks with the trajectories of technology development and regional development allows the authors to theorize and test whether and how particular configurations of production networks generate divergent long term local productivity growth and technological development outcomes Innovation and Regional Development in China will be of interest to geographers economists China specialists development specialists and scholars working on innovation and regional development in developing areas and transition countries      Knowledge Transfer and Innovation for a Western Multinational Company in Chinese and Indian Technology

Clusters Elvire Meier-Comte,2012      Chinese Organizations in Sub-Saharan Africa Terence Jackson,Lynette Louw,Dev K. Boojihawon,2020-11-09 Trade between China and Africa is increasing year on year while the West increasingly debates the nature and implications of China s presence Yet little research exists at the organizational and community levels While western press reporting is overwhelmingly negative African governments mostly welcome the Chinese presence But what happens at the management level How are Chinese organizations run What are they bringing to communities What is their impact on the local job market How do they manage staff How are they working with local firms This book seeks to provide a theoretical framework for understanding Chinese organizations and management in Africa and to explore how their interventions are playing out at the organizational and community levels in sub Saharan Africa Based on rigorous empirical research exploring emerging themes in specific African countries this book develops implications for management knowledge education and training provision and policy formulation Importantly it seeks to inform future scholarship on China s management impact in the world generally on Africa s future development and on international and cross cultural management scholarship Primarily aimed at scholars of international management with an interest in China and or in China in Africa this important book will also be of great interest to those working in the area of development studies international politics and international relations Investigation of Technology Transfer from University to Industry in China Shuiyuan Tang,2008 Chinese Civil-Military Relations Nan Li,2010-04-05 This new book addresses three key issues What has changed in Chinese civil military relations What can account for changes And what are the implications for Chinese security policy and strategic behaviour It tackles these questions by sharply assessing civil military dynamics in elite politics such dynamics in national security and arms control policy relations between commanders and political commissars relations between the PLA and society civil military dynamics regarding defence economics and logistics and such dynamics regarding dual use technologies and defence industry These analyses build into the central theme that the emphasis of Chinese civil military relations is shifting from politics to military tasks This is an extremely important new development by a nation many predict to become a super power in the twenty first century This is therefore essential reading for all students and scholars of strategic and security studies Chinese studies and international relations Proceedings of IAC in Budapest 2018 Group of Authors,2018-08-14 International Academic Conference on Global Education Teaching and Learning and International Academic Conference on Management Economics Business and Marketing and International Academic Conference on Engineering Transport IT and Artificial Intelligence Budapest Hungary 2018 IAC GETL IAC MEBM IAC ETITAI August 17 18 2018 Technology Transfer Between the US, China and Taiwan Douglas B. Fuller,Murray A. Rubinstein,2013-06-26 Examining the flow of technical knowledge between the US Taiwan and Mainland China over the last sixty five years this book shows that the technical knowledge that has moved between these states is vast and varied It includes the invention and production of industrial goods as well as knowledge of the patterns of corporate organization and management Indeed this diversity is reflected in the process itself which is driven both by returning expatriates with knowledge acquired overseas and by successful government intervention in acquiring technology from multinational firms Technology Transfer Between the US China and Taiwan engages with the evolving debates on the merits importance and feasibility of technology transfer in the process of economic development globally and uses the example of Taiwan to show that multinational corporations can indeed play a positive role in economic development Further it reveals the underlying tension between international cooperation and nationalism which inevitably accompanies international exchanges as well as the delicate balancing act required between knowledge acquisition and dangerous levels of dependency and the beneficial role of the US in East Asia s technological development With contributors from disciplines ranging from history geography urban planning sociology political science and electrical engineering this multi disciplinary book will be of great interest to students and scholars working across a broad range of subjects including Taiwan studies Chinese studies economics business studies and development studies A Study of the Perceptions of Knowledge Transfer in Multinational Corporations in China's

Information Technology Industry Yuwen Liu, 2004      Intellectual Property Issues in Biotechnology Harikesh Bahadur Singh, Alok Jha, Chetan Keswani, 2016-09-26 This book integrates a science and business approach to provide an introduction and an insider view of intellectual property issues within the biotech industry with case studies and examples from developing economy markets Broad in scope this book covers key principles in pharmaceutical industrial and agricultural biotechnology within four parts Part 1 details the principles of intellectual property and biotechnology Part 2 covers plant biotechnology including biotic and abiotic stress tolerance GM foods in sustainable agriculture microbial biodiversity and bioprospecting for improving crop health and productivity and production and regulatory requirements of biopesticides and biofertilizers The third part describes recent advances in industrial biotechnology such as DNA patenting and commercial viability of the CRISPR Cas9 system in genome editing The final part describes intellectual property issues in drug discovery and development of personalized medicine and vaccines in biodefence This book is an ideal resource for all postgraduates and researchers working in any branch of biotechnology that requires an overview of the recent developments of intellectual property frameworks in the biotech sector      China's Highway of Information and Communication Technology Jiang Yu, Richard Li-Hua, 2010-02-15 Based on first hand information obtained from Chinese and Foreign enterprises and institutions in the Chinese ICT industry this book presents a comprehensive analysis of the evolution of Chinese ICT industrial sector It especially analyses the strengths weaknesses and threats facing both the Chinese enterprise and western multinationals      State-permeated Capitalism in Large Emerging Economies Andreas Nölke, Tobias ten Brink, Christian May, Simone Claar, 2019-08-30 This book systematically analyzes the economic dynamics of large emerging economies from an extended Comparative Capitalisms perspective Coining the phrase state permeated capitalism the authors shift the focus of research from economic policy alone towards the real world of corporate and state behaviour On the basis of four empirical case studies Brazil India China South Africa the main drivers for robust economic growth in these countries from the 2000s until the 2010s are revealed These are found in particular in mutual institutional compatibilities of state permeated capitalism in their large domestic markets and beneficial global economic constellations Differences in their institutional arrangements are explored to explain why China and India have been more economically successful than Brazil and South Africa The authors highlight substantial challenges for the stability of state permeated capitalism and assess the potential future growth sustainability and likely pitfalls for these large emerging economies Opening further avenues for empirical and theoretical research this book raises questions for the future of the global economic order and should appeal to academics graduate students and advanced undergraduates in politics economics economic sociology and development studies It should also prove a worthwhile and provocative read for development practitioners and policy makers      Geography Of Technology Transfer In China: A Glocal Network Approach Chengliang Liu, 2023-12-06 The majority of technology transfer studies done today are derived from Economics and Management Sciences and there are relatively few studies that examine the geographical concerns of technology transfer from a global perspective Geography of Technology Transfer in China fills the gap by aiming to discover the geographical character of technology transfer and its determinants from the interaction in both global and local scales which involves the study of innovation geography economic geography urban economics and regional economics The chapters included in this book present a clear structure of a series of studies performed both theoretically and empirically The research begins by constructing an analytic framework for urban technology transfer study and abstracts the study target from technological innovation subjects to cities along with establishing the structure system the dimension system and the effect system of urban technology transfer research This then develops an initial conceptual framework for urban technology transfer research In addition it analyses the hierarchy of China's urban technology innovation system and the segmentation of the technology transfer market from the perspective of technology transfer All in all the book aspires to depict the spatial evolution of China's technological innovation system and technology transfer system from a city size perspective thereby realising the spatial scale of technology transfer study

Provided by publisher      Business Networks and Strategic Alliances in China Stewart Clegg, Dr. Karen Wang, Mike Berrell, 2007

Business Networks and Strategic Alliances in China addresses how knowledge transfer and innovation are interwoven within complex networks and how social capital contributes to the acquisition of crucial resources and business success in multi type enterprises in China. The book explains how China's remarkable global economic impact in recent years has developed from foreign investment and that the dominant vehicle for economic development has been the International Joint Venture (IJV) between Chinese manufacturers and overseas enterprises. Strict guidelines on FDI mean that foreign firms have been obliged to form relationships with Chinese organizations. The authors illustrate that as a direct result the quality and nature of the relations networks and alliances forged is crucial for the success of Chinese businesses. A sophisticated empirical, theoretical, comparative and historical guide to understanding the nature of business networks in China is provided by this work. As such it makes a distinct contribution to the furtherance of evidence based management theory and practice and will strongly appeal to those with an interest in management, international business and Asian studies.
