The Deer Hunters:

The Deer Hunter Brad Prager,2023-09-07 Michael Cimino's The Deer Hunter was met with both critical and commercial success upon its release in 1978. However, it was also highly controversial and came to be seen as a powerful statement on the human cost of America's longest war and as a colonialist glorification of anti-Asian violence. Brad Prager's study of the film considers its significance as a war movie and contextualizes its critical reception. Drawing on an archive of contemporaneous materials as well as an in-depth analysis of the film's lighting, mise en scène, multiple cameras, and shifting depths of field, Prager examines how the film simultaneously presents itself as a work of cinematic realism while problematically blurring the lines between fact and fiction. While Cimino felt he had no responsibility to historical truth, depicting a highly stylized version of his own fantasies about the Vietnam War, Prager argues that The Deer Hunter's formal elements were used to bolster his troubling depictions of war and race. Finally, comparing the film with later depictions of US-led intervention such as Albert and Allen Hughes's Dead Presidents (1995) and Spike Lee's Da 5 Bloods (2020), Prager illuminates The Deer Hunter's major presumptions, blind spots, and omissions while also presenting a case for its classic status.

Deer Hunting in Ohio Robert Loewendick,2010-09-27 Ohio has nurtured some of the most celebrated deer hunting ground in the country with a deer population of about 650,000 and well over 400,000 sportsmen pursuing them. From the heyday of the Native American deer slayer to the modern-day huntsman, outdoorsman, and writer Robert Loewendick relays his knowledge of Ohio deer hunting and history with passion and grace. Hitting all four corners of the state and everything in between, Loewendick shares the conservation efforts that made Ohio a deer hunting mecca while including stories of the biggest trophies and others of the most bizarre nature, like that of a buck that plays dead and another that survives an arrow through the head.
