The Distance Between Life And Death:

History of the Philosophy of History Robert Flint, 1893      Derrida and Autobiography Robert Smith, 1995-06 The work of Jacques Derrida can be seen to reinvent most theories. In this book Robert Smith offers both a reading of the philosophy of Derrida and an investigation of current theories of autobiography. Smith argues that for Derrida autobiography is not so much subjective self revelation as relation to the other, not so much a general condition of thought as a general condition of writing what Derrida calls the autobiography of the writing which mocks any self centred finitude of living and dying. In this context and using literary critical philosophical and psychoanalytical sources Smith thinks through Derrida's texts in a new but distinctly Derridean way and finds new perspectives to analyse the work of classical writers including Hegel Nietzsche Kierkegaard Freud and de Man      Historical Philosophy in France and French Belgium and Switzerland Robert Flint, 1894

The Death Rituals of Rural Greece Loring M. Danforth, Alexander Tsiaras, 2020-09-01 This compelling text and dramatic photographic essay convey the emotional power of the death rituals of a small Greek village: the funeral, the singing of laments, the distribution of food, the daily visits to the graves, and especially the rite of exhumation. These rituals help Greek villagers face the universal paradox of mourning: how can the living sustain relationships with the dead and at the same time bring them to an end in order to continue to live meaningfully as members of a community? That is the villagers' dilemma and our own. Thirty one moving photographs reproduced in duotone to do justice to their great beauty combine with vivid descriptions of the bereaved women of Potamia and with the words of the funeral laments to allow the reader an unusual emotional identification with the people of rural Greece as they struggle to integrate the experience of death into their daily lives. Loring M. Danforth's sensitive use of symbolic and structural analysis complements his discussion of the social context in which these rituals occur. He explores important themes in rural Greek life such as the position of women, patterns of reciprocity and obligation, and the nature of social relations within the family.

Any Person Is the Only Self Elisa Gabbert, 2024-06-11 Contagiously curious essays on reading art and the life of the mind from the acclaimed author of The Unreality of Memory. Who are we when we read? When we journal? Are we more ourselves alone or with friends? Right now or in memory? How does time transform us and the art we love? In sixteen dazzling expansive essays, the acclaimed essayist and poet Elisa Gabbert explores a life lived alongside books of all kinds: dog-eared and destroyed, cherished and discarded, classic and clichéd, familiar and profoundly new. She turns her witty, searching mind to the writers she admires from Plath to Proust and the themes that bind them: chance, freedom, envy, ambition, nostalgia, and happiness. She takes us to the strange edges of art and culture from hair metal to surf movies to party fiction. Any Person Is the Only Self is a love letter to literature and to life, inviting us to think alongside one of our most thrilling and versatile critics.

Time, Accounts, Surplus Meaning Frederic Will, 2011-05-25 This book harvests the author's work over several decades on narrative and time, the place of imagination in conceptual thinking and the underlying nature of historical accounts.
