The Death Of William Posters:

The Death of William Posters Alan Sillitoe, 1986 The Death of William Posters Alan Sillitoe (Schriftsteller, England), 1965 The Death of William Posters, Etc Alan Sillitoe, 1967 The William Posters Trilogy Alan Sillitoe, 2018-07-03

The bestselling author of The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner takes his examination of British working class rebellion into the 1960s In his best known works of fiction British novelist Alan Sillitoe powerfully depicted revolt against authority by the young and working class The Washington Post Both The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner and Saturday Night and Sunday Morning were international bestsellers and made into acclaimed films Following those acknowledged masterpieces Sillitoe continued to explore rebellion against an oppressive society in three novels linked by anarchist antihero Frank Dawley In these powerful novels Sillitoe would continue to prove himself one of the best English writers The New York Times and the most quietly eloquent of his cohort of postwar British novelists Jonathan Lethem

The Death of William Posters Frank Dawley has finally quit his soul crushing factory job in Nottingham left his alienating marriage burned his possessions and sold his car Now he is hitching a ride to wherever the road will take him Haunting Frank's physical and existential travels is a ubiquitous inscription painted on nearly every street corner in England BILL POSTERS WILL BE PROSECUTED Relentlessly hounded by authorities whoever William Posters is he becomes a symbol of the servile proletariat exactly what Frank hopes to escape He finds his way from England to Spain to Morocco and into the beds of several married women along the way Finally in Algeria he meets a revolutionary American whom he joins in a high stakes gunrunning mission A Tree on Fire Jewish dilettante Myra Bassingfield is returning to England from Gibraltar with her four week old son The child's father Frank Dawley has disappeared into the African desert where he is fighting for Algerian independence against French troops Greeting Myra is Frank's friend Albert Handley an idealistic painter living in a chaotic home with a large family But after Albert's brother burns down the house the Handley brood moves in with Myra in Buckinghamshire By the time Frank finally returns to England they have formed a commune a domestic cell of protest that may just plant the seeds of a new revolution The Flame of Life Collective cohabitation soon reveals its downfalls within the commune that has set up camp at the home of wealthy Myra Bassingfield Painter Albert Handley is pursuing a whirlwind existence of art sex and chaotic domestic life Frank Dawley returned from gunrunning in Algeria has brought his wife and two kids from Nottingham to live in the Buckinghamshire kibbutz And when a young Spanish anarchist arrives with assassination on her mind her trunk full of notebooks may condemn Frank for a sin committed in the African desert As the community begins to unravel the very notion of revolution comes under scrutiny

Art of Death Nigel Llewellyn, 1991 How did our ancestors die Whereas in our own day the subject of death is usually avoided in pre Industrial England the rituals and processes of death were present and immediate People not only surrounded themselves with memento mori they also sought to keep alive memories of those who had gone before This continual confrontation with death was enhanced by a rich culture of visual artifacts In The Art of Death Nigel Llewellyn explores the meanings behind an astonishing range of these artifacts and describes the attitudes and practices which lay behind their production and use Illustrated and explained in this book are an array of little known objects and images such as death s head spoons jewels and swords mourning rings and fans wax effigies church monuments Dance of Death prints funeral invitations and ephemera as well as works by well known artists including Holbein Hogarth and Blake *Catalogue of the Private Art Collection of Thomas B.
