The Disappearance Of Literature:

The Disappearance of Literature Aaron Hillyer, 2013-09-26 In this book Aaron Hillyer considers the implications of Maurice Blanchot's strange formulation Literature is heading to its essence which is its disappearance This quest leads Hillyer to stage a dialogue between the works of Blanchot and Giorgio Agamben Despite being primary points of reference for literary theory no significant critical work has examined their literary writings together The Disappearance of Literature initiates this new trajectory through readings of Blanchot's The Unavowable Community and Agamben's The Open two short books that harbor their most enigmatic writings A series of related concepts study community mysticism and friendship emerges from this pairing and Hillyer argues forms the basis of a new vein of contemporary literature found in the novels and hybrid fictions of Enrique Vila Matas Anne Carson and Cesar Aira

The Disappearance of Literature Carol Johnson, 1980 Against the Disappearance of Literature, Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen, Timothy Mathews, Dragana Obradovic, 2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person's identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another

The Space of Disappearance Karen Elizabeth Bishop, 2020 More than 30 000 people were forcibly disappeared during the military dictatorship that governed Argentina from 1976-83 leaving behind a cultural landscape fractured by absence denial impunity and gaps in knowledge This book is about how these absences assume narrative form in late twentieth century Argentine fiction and the formal strategies and structures authors have crafted to respond to the country's use of systematic disappearance as a mechanism of state terror In incisive close readings of texts by Rodolfo Walsh Julio Cortázar and Tomás Eloy Martínez Karen Elizabeth Bishop looks at how techniques of dissimulation doubling displacement suspension and embodiment come to serve both epistemological and ethical functions grounding new forms of historical knowledge and a new narrative commons whose work continues into the new millennium Their writing Bishop argues recalibrates our understanding of the reciprocity between fiction and history In the end The Space of Disappearance asks us to look again at what we think we cannot see For there in fiction at the limits of the literary disappearance appears as a vital agent of resistance storytelling and worldbuilding
