Sorry Meniscus:

Maul Tricia Sullivan,2013-10-31 The gun straps to the inside of my leg with Velcro It s not the absolute zenith of fashion to do this anymore but girls who wear theirs with leather straps and buckles aren t serious with Velcro you can get at the thing when you need it I also have a pink ammo belt It s heavy but who said fashion was easy In a mall like any other a gang of teenage girls are suddenly caught up in a maelstrom of shopping and violence But as the designer bullets fly it is not only their own lives they are fighting for Unknown to them they are battling for the life of a man trapped in another place in a different world and with very different enemies He is a man they have never met but who represents the future of the human race or could destroy it Iain Sinclair Brian Baker,2013-01-18 A clearly written comprehensive critical introduction to one of the most original contemporary British writers providing an overview of all of Sinclair s major works and an analysis of his vision of modern London This book places Sinclair in a range of contexts including the late 1960s counter culture and the British Poetry Revival London s underground histories the rise and fall of Thatcherism and Sinclair s writing about Britain under New Labour Sinclair s connection to other writers and artists such as J G Ballard Michael Moorcock and Marc Atkins This book makes a significant contribution to the growing scholarship surrounding Sinclair s work offering the first critical text that covers in detail all of Sinclair s work his poetry fiction non fiction including his book on John Clare Edge of the Orison and his film work City Visions Jenny Bavidge,Robert Bond,2021-03-04 City Visions The Work of Iain Sinclair collects fourteen pathbreaking essays treating the panoramic oeuvre of novelist poet filmmaker and essayist Iain Sinclair This book aims to reflect and develop the current strong interest in the work of Sinclair who is widely recognized as one of the most significant figures in contemporary British literature and culture The essays herein cover the key genres and periods of Sinclair s output discussing his poetry prose and filmmaking and are developed from the proceedings of the first academic conference on Sinclair which was held at the University of Greenwich in 2004 Following the introductory chapter which includes a brief survey of Sinclair s career up until now the collection is arranged thematically in four sections The first part Contexts features essays which comment on the critical categorization and definition of Sinclair s work The second part Culture and Critique includes essays which explore the political import and contexts of Sinclair s oeuvre The articles in the third part Connections look at the links between Sinclair and other writers addressing the often noted intertextuality of his writing and the final section Spaces contains three considerations of Sinclair s treatment of London s urban spaces This collection provides access to the latest research by the leading scholars working in this area and will be a key point of reference for anyone interested in Sinclair s production To some the field of London writing may increasingly look like an indifferent over populated wasteland Iain Sinclair however remains pre eminent by virtue not only of the amplitude of his knowledge of the city but of the intensity and complexity of his thought about it He is the redemptive memorialist of a host of disregarded London cultures that lie quite beyond the reach of contemporary pieties In that respect he is less our Blake as he sometimes seems to believe than our Pepys or our Defoe At the same time he is an audacious experimenter with prose forms in the modernist tradition from Joyce to Burroughs and beyond Like the Sinclair phenomenon itself this valuable collection of essays is multifaceted illuminating its subject from a variety of different angles whilst very well aware that it is part of a work in progress It offers important testimony to the scope and power of a writer engaged in an original serious and necessary project Andrew Gibson Research Professor of Modern Literature and Theory Royal Holloway University of London This is an important and timely collection about arguably the most significant living London writer who is increasingly being recognised as an important contemporary English author in every sense Lawrence Phillips Principal Lecturer in English University of Northampton At last Iain Sinclair has the readers he deserves at least on the ample often provocative and always fascinating evidence of City Visions a collection of essays marked equally by panache and verve awareness of alternative cultural history and theoretical sophistication Over fourteen chapters critics with wide ranging interests gather their restless energies and obsessions in response to the scatter gun agitprop and guerilla intellectualism of Sinclair to produce a necessary and necessarily edgy volume In this admirably relentless collection Jenny Bavidge and Robert Bond offer an unnerving and inventive critical topography that uncovers the dark heart of a writer who is simultaneously the enfant terrible and minence grise of English letters Belles lettrists and other dilettantes be warned this is not a volume for the faint hearted these essays manifest an evangelical zeal equal to their subject's own in doing so they take us on an exhilarating intellectual adventure so refreshing in the world of lit crit where the polite formulas of sensible reading make one want to faint from ennui Professor Julian Wolfreys Loughborough University

British Fiction of the 1990s Nick Bentley, 2007-05-07 Presenting a fresh perspective on the diverse writings that appeared in British fiction during the 1990s this book brings together leading academics in the field

Iain Sinclair Robert Sheppard, 2007 This study covers Iain Sinclair's major works but also seeks to trace the connections between his writings and earlier books of poetry

Landscape and Subjectivity in the Work of Patrick Keiller, W.G. Sebald, and Iain Sinclair David Anderson, 2020 Studies the work of British film maker and writer Patrick Keiller German writer W G Sebald and Welsh writer and film maker Iain Sinclair to illustrate how they represent a highly significant moment in English literature and film's engagement with landscape and environment

Landor's Tower, Or, The Imaginary Conversations Iain Sinclair, 2001 A London writer comes to recognise his growing obsession with the Ewys Valley on the border of England and Wales Ewys has been the site of persistent attempts to found or imagine utopian communities all fascinated by the mythology of the west Anglican renegade Father Ignatius hippie communes Allen Ginsberg Bruce Chatwin teepee dwellers mushroom gobblers narco pirates

Architecture Between Spectacle and Use Anthony Vidler, 2008 This volume examines the state of contemporary architecture worldwide and the ways in which it is caught between the art of display and the accommodation of use

The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal Caroline Hamilton, 2007 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal is an eclectic collection of essays from emerging academics who engage with the notion of oerefusal both as the embodiment of a resistance to conventional boundaries between academic disciplines and as a concept with an underlying negative or reactive force that can be widely interpreted and applied The applications of oerefusal outlined in this volume ranging from activism and the politics of cultural production through to problems of identity and knowledge classification raise questions about often elided relationships of agency and complicity in routine experience The sense of oerefusal that emerges from this book is perhaps most easily classified by what it is not namely a prescriptive conclusive or unified account of what it is to reject react or work against any particular instance of theory or practice in any given domain The value of a thematically oriented collection like this is its ability to work across disciplines media and philosophical frameworks rather than limiting its focus to a narrow territory According to Herbert Marcuse refusal must not only be the guiding principle for all artistic creation it must also be a manifestation of artistic creation itself With this volume we have attempted to compose a collection which is not only theoretically guided by refusal but practically informed by it as well The collection in itself constitutes we hope a constructive rejection of the usual constrictions of discipline and approach placed upon new scholars This rich collection of essays on the political aesthetic and ethical dimensions of that form of social action called refusal is an important contribution to our understanding of the tensions and contradictions of contemporary culture John Frow Professor of English Literary Studies at the University of Melbourne

The Verbals Kevin Jackson,Iain Sinclair,2003 In The Verbals a long conversation mingling confession memories and self criticism Sinclair lays bare the origins of these works from the myths of Freemasonry surrounding his ancestry to his encounters with the likes of Allen Ginsberg from his adventures in the film world to his bohemian life in Dublin from casual labouring in the East End to esoteric studies of earth mysteries and psychotherapy

Texts Peter Childs,2006 Texts is a new kind of book which shows students how to use literary theory to approach a wide range of literary cultural and media texts of the kind studied on today's courses

Downriver, Or, The Vessels of Wrath Iain Sinclair,2002 A book Angela Carter called crazy dangerous prophetic that traces the decline of river life along the banks of the Thames

This Enchanted Isle Peter Woodcock,2000 Britain's mystical and mythological heritage has been inspirational throughout the ages The author discusses such visionaries as Blake and the alchemist Dr Dee challenging nihilism with the survival of the sacred in art

Dining on Stones Iain Sinclair,2004 Billed as a road novel Dining on Stones is a psychogeographic quest an exploration of authorial identity and a moving elegy to a landscape what is now being called Thames Gateway that will soon be gone The road the novel follows is the much unloved A13 which leads out of the East End into the grey marshes of the estuary The unreliable narration is shared by three authors each in search of something Their journeys echo other journeys that of Norton's great grandfather into darkest Peru that of Joseph Conrad into the Heart of Darkness which was written at Stanford le Hope in Essex and that of Stanley Kubrick from Vietnam to Limehouse where he shot Full Metal Jacket
