Leticia Gossdenovich Feldman Ph. Ed D.,2009-12 Afro-Latin Soul Music and the Rise of Black Power Cosmopolitanism

Matti Steinitz,2024-12-30 Whereas research on the global impact of US African American culture and politics and transnational connections in the African Diaspora has increased significantly since the release of Gilroy s Black Atlantic the hemispheric dialogues between black communities in the US and Latin America have remained somewhat understudied until now Focusing on the role of Soul music for the popularization of the Black Power movement in Afro Latin American contexts in the 1960s and 1970s this book aims to contribute to a better understanding of the networks of solidarity that connected geographically and linguistically distant afro diasporic communities in their struggles for emancipation and against the diverse manifestations of white supremacy that have shaped societies throughout the Americas in the 20th century Drawing on field research and interviews with musicians DJs and activists in New York Rio de Janeiro and Panama this multi sited study traces the inter American flows of Soul music in diverse Afro Latin American contexts Crossing boundaries between African American and Latin American Studies this book opens new perspectives to scholars of Black Transnationalism music and social movements in the African diaspora of the Americas Education, Colonial Sickness Njoki Nathani

Wane,2024-03-18 In the last two decades we have witnessed the quest for decolonization through research writing teaching and curriculum across the globe Calls to decolonize higher education have been overwhelming in recent year However the goal of decolonizing has evolved past not only the need to dismantle colonial empires but all imperial structures Today decolonization is deemed a basis for restorative justice under the lens of the psychological economic and cultural spectrum In this book the editor and her authors confront various dimensions of decolonizing work structural epistemic personal and relational which are entangled and equally necessary This book illuminates other sites and dimensions of decolonizing not only from Africa but also other areas This convergence of critical scholarship theoretical inquiry and empirical research is committed to questioning and redressing inequality in contemporary history and other African studies It signals one of many steps in a bid to consultatively examine how knowledge and power have been both defined and subsequently denied through the sphere of academic practice *Catalogue of (printed) music.
