Simon Cottee,2022-06-24 Watching Murder shines a light onto the dark world of jihadi murder videos and the people who watch and share them on the internet Images and videos of murder torture and other cruelties are everywhere on the internet Why do some people seek out and watch this material how are they affected by it and do they have a right to watch any of it in the first place In this ground breaking book terrorism scholar Simon Cottee visits the murky fringes of the internet in search of answers Focusing on ISIS he shows how the group transformed the urban myth of the snuff movie into a grim reality watched by tens of thousands of people across the globe On shock sites he finds a contingent of ISIS fans who while hating the group love to watch its most monstrous depredations in high definition He interviews his fellow extremism researchers and asks them about all the dark things they have seen online and how this has affected their mental health He speaks with the cleaners whose job is to report and remove violent jihadi propaganda from the internet And he surveys thousands of young adults to find out what they think of ISIS and its notorious beheading videos Cottee exposes the hysteria around online radicalization and shows how our engagement with violent online spectacles is much more complex and multifaceted than many would have us believe Watching Murder will appeal to anyone with an interest in violence media terrorism and ISIS It will be of particular interest to students and scholars of terrorism studies political science culture and communication Dear Religious... Fr Benedict Pulickattil, The Eco-Home Design Guide Christopher

In Sync with the Sacred, Out of Step with the World Tom Stella,2023-10-11 What does it mean to live in sync with the sacred For Tom Stella it means living an authentic life It means stepping to the cadence of the sacred which requires a specific type of courage the courage to be different to stand out to be odd and perhaps even considered a threat by those who find their identity comfort and security in the status quo the conventional The good news is that we can do this while conducting our everyday lives Unlike Thoreau who felt he had to retreat to Walden Pond to live deliberately to front only the essential facts of life and see if I could not learn what it had to teach we don t have to retreat to the woods According to Stella authenticity is first and foremost a matter of being attuned and responsive to the sacred within to an instinct an intuition a sixth sense a deep voiceless voice that can be heard even in a crowd This inner guide may at times call us to live apart from others but it surely summons us to follow a road less traveled that is to turn away from the conventional wisdom of society those ways of thinking believing and behaving that go unquestioned busy is good more is better success equals wealth Welcome to a refreshing version of spirituality The gospel pulpit.
