

The background of the book cover is a dramatic, dark landscape. At the top, a crucifix of Jesus Christ is centered, with his arms outstretched. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, and a faint light source, possibly the sun or moon, is visible behind the cross. Below the sky, a body of water stretches across the foreground, reflecting the light. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

Symbols Of Jesus A Christology Of Symbolic Engagement:

Symbols of Jesus Robert C. Neville, 2001 Symbols of Jesus is a systematic theology focusing on what makes Jesus important in Christianity Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology Echol Lee Nix, 2010 Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology examines the methodological attempts of Ernst Troeltsch and Robert Neville for discerning Christian normativity The investigation of Troeltsch focuses on his treatment of the absoluteness of Christianity and highlights the crisis brought upon absolute religious claims by the study of the history of religions By rejecting both the supernatural exclusive apologetic of orthodox Protestantism and the evolutionary apologetic of liberal Protestantism Troeltsch insists that theology's method should be the history of religions method die religionsgeschichtliche Methode Like Troeltsch Neville agrees with historical inquiries but contrary to Troeltsch Neville advances an axiological hypothesis to thinking which is founded in valuation Neville explains the role of valuation at the imaginative level of thinking and relates it to his theory of normative truth in religious symbols This study shows that Neville begins with Troeltsch's methodological presuppositions but achieves more normative theology than Troeltsch especially on ways in which God is engaged in symbolically shaped thinking and practice Both thinkers offer creative insights for theology that make possible a critical comparison of truth claims regarding the validity of Christianity in and for a historically conscious age

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

The Scandal of Pentecost Wolfgang Vondey, 2023-10-19 Through a systematic analysis of the conflicts emerging when the public church encounters the public world The Scandal of Pentecost argues that the public advent of the church stands in continuity with the public scandal of the incarnate and crucified Christ The book traces the contours of this scandal in the confrontation of the dominant ruling hermeneutic of authority with a Christian hermeneutic of resistance This highlights the brokenness of the human condition manifested by the church in the drunkenness of the disciples the speaking in other tongues the baptism with the Spirit the empowerment of the flesh and its public witness to a scandalized world The effects of the scandal transform both the disciples individual and communal witness and their public recognition as the church Through the lens of a symbolic hermeneutic the public witness of the church at Pentecost reveals a Christian scandal of anthropological proportions with the outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh the church emerges as the symbol of humanity

When Judaism and Christianity Began: Judaism and Christianity in the beginning Anthony J. Saldarini, 2004 Annotation In these volumes top scholars in the study of religion celebrate the enduring heritage in learning bequeathed to coming generations by Anthony J Saldarini 1941 2001 Twenty nine commemorative essays focus on the topical areas of formative Christianity and Judaism to which Dr Saldarini devoted his efforts earliest Christianity with special attention to the Gospels Judaism in late antiquity and the interchange between Judaism and Christianity then and now So too the disciplines represented in these pages match his history including archaeology literature religion and theology Recognizing the standards of learning set by Dr Saldarini in all of these areas the colleagues represented in these volumes memorialize him by following in the model he set of meeting the highest standards of the diverse fields that intersect in the study of Judaic and Christian antiquity

The Transformative Imagination George Newlands, 2017-05-15 At the beginning of the twenty first century there is an increasing tendency to retrenchment within the Christian churches and among other world religions Religious fundamentalisms are on the increase In Europe at least there is an accelerated decline in church membership In theology there is a corresponding move away from addressing basic theological issues in the contemporary world towards increasingly technical interpretation of historical tradition This book draws on the strengths in classical liberal traditions in theology augmented by other perspectives to present a creative proposal for the future of theology and society George Newlands explores the nature scope and limits of an intercultural Christian theology setting out a working model for a new open theology which relates theology and culture Contributing to the cumulative effort to re imagine faith in the contemporary world a focus on the Christian understanding of God lies at the heart of this book Exploring the interface between theology and particular cultural activities The Transformative Imagination engages with politics literature philosophy and other humanities and the natural sciences The relationship between theology and the social and geographical sub cultures which characterize human life is explored through diverse examples which make connections and initiate dialogue Connecting Christian theology and human rights religion is seen to link constructively with some of the most intractable problems in contemporary global conflicts of interest Theology is re situated as a team player a catalyst to facilitate dialogue in contrast to triumphalist theologies of the past

Christ in Practice Clive Marsh, 2006 In 1944 Dietrich Bonhoeffer asked Who is Christ for us today In this theologically informed and very practical exploration of what it means to live in Christ Clive Marsh seeks to answer Bonhoeffer s question in a way that is appropriate for the 21st Century Christ in Practice refuses to locate Christ solely in the Church but finds him in the midst of contemporary life especially in the complex ethical challenges of daily living Clive Marsh considers how Christ is present today and invites us to reflect on how communal human interaction can be informed and transformed through attempting to understand this question In the process he considers how Christ and the Church relate today highlighting the decisive role to be played by the Church in society and the humility with which it needs to fulfil its task Clive Marsh argues that the point of Christology and of Christianity itself is not to interpret Christ but to live within Christ and to do so without being consumed by Church It is a passionate plea for Christians to remain faithful to a commitment to Christ as present and active in the world The Journal of Philosophy ,2002 Journal of Early Christian Studies ,2002 Focus is on the study of Christianity in the context of late ancient societies and religions from C E 100 700 Religious and Theological Abstracts ,2007 Traces of Liberality G. M. Newlands,2006 This collection of essays reflects constructive engagement with a liberal and progressive programme of Christian theology over a number of years The themes are diverse from the renewal of Christology and the ecumenical dimensions of ecclesiology to human rights and emancipatory theology Encountering Jesus Christ in India Joseph Lobo,2005 A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh,2005-01-27 This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian Christian theory of human nature encompassing the theory of justification sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety The book presents the theological anthropology of Robert C Neville and the inclusive humanism of Tu Wei ming as critical guides for the creation of a comparative contemporary Korean theology Studies in Philosophy and the History of Philosophy John Kenneth Ryan,2011 Queer Theology Gerard Loughlin,2007-11-19 These essays reconceptualize the body and its desires argue that Christian sexuality is meaningful for the good of the Church and that bodies are the mobile products of changing discourses and regimes of power American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Christology and Science F. LeRon Shults,2008 The dialogue between theology and science has blossomed in recent decades but particular beliefs about Jesus Christ have not often been brought to the forefront of this interdisciplinary discussion even in explicitly Christian contexts This book breaks new ground by explicitly bringing the specific themes of Christology into dialogue with contemporary science It engages recent developments in late modern philosophy of science in order to articulate the Christian beliefs about Jesus Christ in a way that responds to challenges and opportunities that have arisen in light of various scientific discoveries The main chapters deal with Incarnation Atonement and Parousia After a brief treatment of the history of the shaping of these ideas the author traces developments in some of the sciences that have challenged these formulations evolutionary biology cultural anthropology and physical cosmology Each chapter also summarises some of the popular constructive responses to these developments After clarifying the way in which the Christian understanding of God and of humanity shape the task of reforming Christology each chapter concludes with a programmatic outline of ways in which we might articulate the identity agency and presence of Jesus Christ in dialogue with late modern science and culture The Christology of the Fourth Gospel William R. G. Loader,1992 Christology is at the heart of the theology of the fourth gospel Since Bultmann's impressive synthesis much has been written about its individual themes and motifs its sources and history The present study sets out to identify the basic structure of Johannine christology and to show how it underlies and integrates the various motifs and themes which surface in the transmitted text of the gospel From the perspective gained through this analysis it re examines the major issues of Johannine christology and their significance for understanding the gospel both in its setting and in our own
