Partnership in Ministry Paul H. Byun, 2023-05-16 What type of relationship did New Testament churches have with one another Was it a relationship of conflict and competition Or was it a loose aggregation of individual churches scattered across the Roman Empire Or can it be described as a cohesive partnership for the common cause of the gospel of Christ Most New Testament church activities are recorded in connection with Paul s ministry In this sense the present study started on the premise that close attention to Paul s partnership ministry would offer a richer understanding of New Testament church relationships By exploring some ministry areas such as Paul s coworkers financial assistance and communicative activities this book demonstrates that Paul s churches occasioned and mediated by Paul s partnership ministry were engaged in networking and collaboration far more closely than has generally been assumed not only among themselves but also with non Pauline churches Paul s partnership ministry significantly contributed to the relationship of New Testament churches A Postcolonial Commentary on the New Testament Writings Fernando F. Segovia, R. S. Sugirtharajah, 2007-11-27 A comprehensive analysis of the New Testament from the perspective of postcolonial criticism this title enables readers to relate biblical texts more sharply to the perennial geopolitical issues of imperialism and colonialism The Book of Acts in Its First Century Setting: The book of acts in its Graeco-Roman setting Bruce W. Winter, 1993 The New Testament, with notes and comments by L. Abbott Lyman Abbott, 1875 The New Testament and Hellenistic Judaism Peder Borgen, Søren Giversen, 1997 A substantial portion of the New Testament was either written in the Jewish Diaspora or addressed to members of the Diaspora This means that Hellenistic Judaism outside of Palestine was to a great extent the matrix from which New Testament thought developed so that New Testament teachings and presuppositions about the relationship of the followers of Jesus to the Old Covenant must be understood in terms of Hellenistic Jewish understandings of that covenant These papers which were presented at a conference held at the University of Aarhus Denmark in 1992 investigate different aspects of the relationship of formative Christianity to its Hellenistic Jewish matrix Contributors are European scholars such as the volume editors and Marinus de Jonge and Americans including James Charlesworth and Adela Yarbro Collins Topics include ownership of the covenant according to the Epistle of Barnabas Alexandrian Jewish religious life as seen in texts prior to Philo the universality of Torah in Hellenistic Judaism as a preparation for gentile Christianity the Jewishness of the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs and of certain magical texts the Jewish background of Mark s empty tomb account Mark s theios aner christology and the New Testament love command comparisons of Philonic and Pauline biblical exegesis the
