The Nonchristian Cross:

The Non-Christian Cross John Denham Parsons, 2020-12-17 The history of the symbol of the cross has had an attraction for the author ever since as an enquiring youth he found himself unable to obtain satisfactory answers to four questions concerning the same which presented themselves to his mind Pursuing these matters for himself the author eventually found that even before our era the cross was venerated by many as the symbol of Life though our works of reference seldom mention this fact and never do it justice He moreover discovered that no one has ever written a complete history of the symbol showing the possibility that the stauros or post to which Jesus was affixed was not cross shaped and the certainty that in any case what eventually became the symbol of our faith owed some of its prestige as a Christian symbol of Victory and Life to the position it occupied in pre Christian days The author has therefore in the hope of drawing attention to the subject incorporated the results of his researches in the present book

Parsons, 2013-11-01 The Non Christian Cross An Enquiry into the Origin and History of the Symbol Eventually Adopted as that of Our Religion By John Denham Parsons In the thousand and one works supplied for our information upon matters connected with the history of our race we are told that Alexander the Great Titus and various Greek Roman and Oriental rulers of ancient days crucified this or that person or that they crucified so many at once or during their reign And the instrument of execution is called a cross The natural result is that we imagine that all the people said to have been crucified were executed by being nailed or otherwise affixed to a cross shaped instrument set in the ground like that to be seen in our fanciful illustrations of the execution of Jesus This was however by no means necessarily the case For instance the death spoken of death by the stauros included transfixion by a pointed stauros or stake as well as affixion to an unpointed stauros or stake and the latter punishment was not always that referred to It is also probable that in most of the many cases where we have no clue as to which kind of stauros was used the cause of the condemned one s death was transfixion by a pointed stauros
