The Nonsense Guide To Indigenous Peoples:

The No-nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples Lotte Hughes,2003 Indigenous peoples have long suffered from exoticization Outsiders elevate their beauty remoteness and difference and do not see beyond this to the real problems they face The No Nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples looks beyond the exotic images tracing the stories of different indigenous peoples from their first and often fatal contact with explorers and colonizers Much of this history is told here by indigenous people themselves They vividly describe why land and the natural world are so special to them how it feels to be snatched from your family as a child because the government wants to make you white why they are demanding that museums must return the bones of their ancestors how can they retain their traditional culture while moving with the times and what kinds of development are positive This short guide discusses all this and more raising countless issues for debate

The No-nonsense Guide to Global Media Peter Steven,2004 The No-nonsense Guide to Women's Rights Nikki Van der Gaag,2004 How much how much has life really changed for women over the last decade Has the women s movement affected women all over the world Has it changed women s relationships with men Nikki van der Gaag answers these questions with hard sometimes disturbing evidence Many women have made huge leaps forward in legal rights political representation employment education and health The rhetoric of gender equality slips easily off the tongues of politicians But beneath the surface the statistics are shocking And men have changed very little Vivid testimonies from around the world explain why especially in this post feminist age women s rights are still very much an issue for men and women alike

The No-Nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples' Communication Rights ,2009 The No-Nonsense Guide to Indigenous People Lotte Hughes,2012-04-10 This guide looks beyond the exotic images tracing the story of different indigenous people from their first contact with explorers and colonizers to the present day Much of this story is told by the indigenous people themselves and they present the issues behind the challenge to give them their own space in their own lands

The No-nonsense Guide to World Poverty Jeremy Seabrook,2003 This richly creative book the work of a uniquely original political writer takes a new look at world poverty Wealth and poverty are inseparable It may comfort the poor to believe the rich are not happy But is it true Strong evidence exists that the rich too suffer from the relationship of injustice albeit in a different way Seabrook explains the broad effects of poverty including crime and the fear of crime the traffic in people and drugs and the degradation of the natural world He examines the phrase A humanity wasted in one way or another by poverty or excess This is not a figure of speech he concludes It refers to the costs of poverty for both the poor and the rich

New Internationalist ,2004 No-Nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples, 2nd edition Lotte Hughes,2012-04-01 Since the first edition of the No Nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples was published in 2003 much has changed The United Nations General Assembly has adopted the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Indigenous rights have become an increasingly important subject in international law with Bolivia s first indigenous president Evo Morales arguing on the international stage from an indigenous perspective and introducing policies benefiting indigenous communities through land reforms and redistribution of wealth Moreover there has been a surge in indigenous activism and advocacy with the growth of a global indigenous rights industry the effects of which are not always positive This updated edition reflects the changing context and examines the developments as well as the tensions and contradictions and includes as many direct voices as possible

The No-nonsense Guide to International Development Maggie Black,2002 The terms overseas aid and international development mask confusion contradiction and deceit All too often what passes for development improves life for the better off while actively hurting the very people the venture was meant to support Black argues that in order to truly defend the interests of the poor we need more realism less hypocrisy and a more accurate picture of what is happening in development s name

The No-nonsense Guide to Terrorism Jonathan Barker,2003 Terrorism is a word that is thrown around very loosely by all sorts of people often by the biggest terrorists of all But what is its history as a concept and how can we make sense of all the competing meanings Who stands to gain when the word is used Barker challenges common misconceptions about terrorism and illustrates the ways in which both terrorism and counter terrorism undermine popular politics and democratic space

Jeff Herman's Guide to Book Publishers, Editors & Literary Agents Jeff Herman,2003 A guide to the names and specialities of American and Canadian publishers editors and literary agents includes information on the acquisition process and on choosing literary agents

The Ecologist ,2005 The Publishers Weekly ,2007 Toxic Belonging? Dan Wylie,2008 Southern Africa TM s literatures brim with references to the natural world its landscapes and its animals Both fictional and non fictional works express ongoing debates often highly politicised concerning its various groups TM senses of identity and belonging in relation to the land and its denizens This often involves a pervasive tension between Western TM settler societies TM conceptions of modernity and indigenous world views each complicating the often simplistic binarisms drawn between them In this selection of papers from the 2006 Literature and Ecology Colloquium held in Grahamstown South Africa the complexities of forging imaginative and pragmatic senses of belonging in Southern Africa are explored from a variety of disciplinary perspectives philosophical historical botanical and anthropological as well as literary Their subject matter ranges widely from Bushmen testimonies to Berlin missionaries from prehistoric cave dwellers to Schopenhauer from white Batswana to lion takers but find themselves echoing one another in intriguing and illuminating ways These are highly localised meditations on age old questions What does it mean to be human within a natural environment Why do we appear to be so damaging to the ecology that sustains us Is our presence inevitably toxic TM to our planetary fellow travellers How do we forge an ecologically sound sense of belonging in this post colonial post apartheid post modern era If this collection has a single most prominent question binding it together it is this What are the limits and potentialities of human compassion towards the natural world

MultiCultural Review ,2003 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Bilingualism: A Social Approach M. Heller,2007-04-29 Arguing against a common sense view of bilingualism as the co existence of two linguistic systems this volume develops a critical perspective which approaches bilingualism as a wide variety of sets of sociolinguistic practices connected to the construction of social difference and of social inequality under specific historical conditions Quill & Quire ,2005 The No-nonsense Parents' Guide Sheila Fuller,Leigh Rudd,1992 The No-nonsense Guide to International Migration Peter Stalker,2001 The world is in motion Millions of people migrate every year in search of a better life Are they coming to steal jobs or live on welfare What happens to the communities they leave behind How do they fair in their new settings Why do rich countries need immigrants Will Canadians welcome these changes or allow prejudice and bigotry to hold us back
