

A romantic scene featuring a man, a woman, and a baby. The man, with dark curly hair and a serious expression, is leaning over the baby. The woman, with long dark hair and a bright smile, stands behind him. The baby is lying down, wearing a grey shirt with the word 'HERO' on it. The background is softly blurred, suggesting an indoor setting with warm lighting.

Lee,2012-09 There are two grades of human beings high and low Their grades have nothing to do with material wealth title etc But have something to do with character wealth These character grades determine whether one is likeable or not and if one lives a happy and meaningful life or not High grades enrich other s lives while low grades tire and bore others High character grade doesn t mean perfect but is the one and probably the only one important factor in life Not only in relating to others but also in relation to oneself Material wealth doesn t matter much once economic independence is achieved but character wealth matters most in life For instance high grades are always sufficient in life no matter what while low grades are always insufficient Not only that you always have to be careful of low grades since they are opportunistic and manipulative therefore using others While high grades are genuine therefore enriching not only other s lives but also their own lives     The Spiritual Diary Emanuel Swedenborg,1883     Beyond Divorce

Maness,2003-01-09 I chronicle the nature of grief peculiar to divorce in a personal manner through the lens of my experience and clinical understanding I begin with love and end with love In Part One I begin with the fantasy that turned into tragedy and I use the analogy of a clock s mechanism to show the general nature and course of healthy grief especially in divorce I start with an analogy of the mechanical nature of something totally non mechanical and fully metaphysical A mainspring fulcrum lever and pendulums show how inward and outward expressions of grief facilitate or impede healing In Part Two the Black Forest Pathway How Expression Unfolds chapters III through XII a few other analogies are used to chronicle the journey through grief like the Bay of Heartbrokenness the Bridge of Finality and the Wasteland With these analogies and some liberty I take the reader on a walk through the Black Forest observing the various trees that make up grief in the various stages of a divorce In Part Three the Black Forest What Helps Expression chapters XIII and XV I step back and view the Black Forest as a whole that is in comparison with and without diminishing the grief of death I show the peculiar and greater pain of divorce All analogies have some weaknesses and there is no pretension to having chronicled every aspect Even these are but scribbles But perhaps the pictures and journey will help a little If anything I hope for an increase in sensitivity toward those going through a divorce for it can be the most traumatic and painful event in a person s life indeed life changing For more information go to www.preciousheart.net
