UPNG Em i Go We? Paraka M. Pena,1998      Personnel Training and Education ,1989      Working as Indigenous Archaeologists George Nicholas,Joe Watkins,2024-09-30 Working as Indigenous Archaeologists explores the often contentious relationship between Indigenous and other formerly colonized peoples and Archaeology through their own voices Over the past 35 plus years the once novel field of Indigenous Archaeology has become a relatively familiar part of the archaeological landscape It has been celebrated criticized and analyzed as to its practical and theoretical applications and its political nature No less important are the life stories of its Indigenous practitioners What has brought some of them to become practicing archaeologists or heritage managers What challenges have they faced from both inside and outside their communities And why haven t more pursued Archaeology as a vocation or avocation This volume is a collection of 60 autobiographical chapters by Indigenous archaeologists and heritage specialists from around the world some community based some academic some in other realms who are working to connect past and present in meaningful and especially personal ways As Archaeology continues to evolve there remain strong tensions between an objective science oriented evidentiary based approach to knowing the past and a more subjective relational humanistic approach informed by local values traditional knowledge and holistic perspective While there are no maps for these new territories hearing directly from those Indigenous individuals who have pursued Archaeology reveals the pathways taken Those stories will provide inspiration and confidence for those curious about what lies ahead This is an important volume for anyone interested in the present state and future of the archaeological discipline      Papua and New Guinea Journal of Education ,1969-02

Science in New Guinea ,1989      A New Guinea Bibliography ,1984      Minami Taiheiyō Kenkyū ,1992      Papua New Guinea Journal of Education ,1988      The University of Papua New Guinea Vincent Lynn Meek,1982 A case study of the first 10 years of the University of Papua New Guinea is presented with attention focused on the function structure and character of a new university in a newly independent nation The analysis is based on the three issues of adaptation conflict and change and the case study is designed to test how well past social theories fit the reality of a new university in a Melanesian environment which is characterized by oral transmission of culture an agricultural economy until recently and its history as a colony The establishment of the University difficulties with the Australian Department of Territories early university leaders and various kinds of struggles are described Additional considerations include the contribution of staff to the educational and political life of the colony and new nation problems facing new students social problems arising from bringing together sometimes antagonistic people and the special problems of the small minority of women on campus Finally the complex organization of the university and the external environment are examined including the challenge of reconciling the problems of local relevance with the demands of international standards of scholarship The methodological and theoretical frameworks for the analysis are also discussed SW      A New Guinea Bibliography: Economics, Commerce,

Transport, Psychology and Education ,1984    Psychopathology in Papua New Guinea Rob Robin,1979    Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2005 Theses on any subject submitted by the academic libraries in the UK and Ireland    Melbourne Studies in Education ,1983    Women and Education in Papua New Guinea and the South Pacific Eileen Wormald,Anne Crossley,1988 Papers originally presented at the Women in Education Conference organized by the Education Faculty of the University of Papua New Guinea and held Sept 14 1987    Papua New Guinea Law Reports Papua New Guinea. Supreme Court,1996    Report of the Expert Committee to Review Dental Education and Training in Papua New Guinea Expert Committee to Review Dental Education and Training in Papua New Guinea,1972    Quality Assurance in Higher Education David Lim,2020-07-24 This title was first published in 2001 Universities in developing countries have followed their counterparts in developed countries and adopted quality assurance to improve the quality of their activities This text examines the wisdom of such a move when many of the conditions necessary for its success are not present It concludes that quality assurance can be useful in developing countries because it shows how a university's seemingly disparate activities are related to one another to serve a common goal and how the quality of these can best be improved by using an integrated approach Quality assurance also provides more focus and direction to the work of the traditional university system However it must be modified to suit the conditions prevailing in developing countries by being simple in design modest in expectations and realistic in requirements    Post-independence Economic Development of Papua New Guinea P. A. S. Dahanayake,1982 Conference report on the economic development of Papua New Guinea since independence examines economic conditions development policy labour utilization wage policy regional disparity trade policy import substitution monetary policy fiscal policy hard currency strategy foreign exchange balance of payments exports infrastructure development rural development and regional development contains economic indicators Bibliography graphs and statistical tables Conference held in Waigani 1981    The Pacific Islands and the USA R. G. Crocombe,1995 The world's most powerful nation and more than a dozen of the world's smallest have been interacting for 200 years Beginning with whaling in the 1700's it has continued through many trades investment education churches media diplomacy and strategic issues As significant as the movement of Americans to the Pacific is that of 150 000 Pacific Islanders to the USA This important book documents the growing interaction with the USA to the pinnacle of involvement in World War II The importance of USA to the Pacific Islands remained high until the end of the 1980's but has declined since then on almost every dimension While USA will remain significant for the Pacific Islands its relative profile will continue to decline Back cover    Commonwealth Universities Yearbook ,1981 A directory to the universities of the Commonwealth and the handbook of their association
