The Of All Power:

All Power to the Lamb James R. Johnson, 2011-04 If you were God writing a book you wanted men to understand would you write it in such a way that men would have to make up meaning in order to understand it or would you write it in such a way that those that seek to understand could actually come to a knowledge of its truth Mt 7 7 The present commentary takes the position that God wrote Revelation such that with sufficient effort and intellectual honesty readers can understand it Certainly God uses symbols in Revelation but when He does He provides inspired interpretations of the symbols This commentary seeks to avoid the mistakes of the views that use the symbolical approach to Revelation preterist continuous historical spiritualist and idealist These approaches suffer from two basic flaws assuming the text is symbolical when it is not and making up meaning regarding the text based on stream of consciousness word association much as one would do looking at Rorschach inkblots This commentary seeks to avoid telling God what He should have said and strives to understand what God actually meant Of all the existing approaches to understanding Revelation this commentary is most closely aligned with the dispensationalist premillennialist Left Behind view in that it views Revelation from a literalist perspective It is different from the typical dispensationalist schema in that it views the seven seals as the powers of the Lamb understands the exercise of the powers of the seven seals to be simultaneous processes and casts chapters 8 22 as three parallel prophecies of the Lamb s power over the course of the histories of Israel the nations and the saints This commentary also makes use of many of the non canonical works that provide insight into the spirit world and detail regarding the end of the present age The Metaphysics of Powers Anna Marmodoro, 2010-06-10 This volume is a collection of papers that advance our understanding of the metaphysics of powers properties such as fragility and electric charge The metaphysics of powers is a fast developing research field with fundamental questions at the forefront of current research such as Can there be a world of only powers What is the manifestation of a power Are powers and their manifestations related by necessity What are the prospects for dispositional accounts of causation The papers focus on questions concerning the metaphysics of powers that cut across any particular subject specific ontological domain whether philosophy of science philosophy of mind ethics epistemology investigating the metaphysical structure of powers the nature of the manifestation of powers the necessity or contingency of a power s relation to its manifestations and powers and causation A number of authors also engage in discussion with Humean and neo Humean treatments of causation thereby making contributions to a larger metaphysical debate beyond powers Additionally the authors engage critically with the latest contributions to the debate on powers in the literature thereby bringing together in a wholesome and analytical way the most recent and noteworthy theoretical developments in this research field The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain.
