The Of Hrabal:

The Book of Hrabal Péter Esterházy, 1995 An elaborate elegant homage to the great Czech storyteller Bohumil Hrabal author of Closely Watched Trains The Book of Hrabal is also a farewell to the years of communism in Eastern Europe and a glowing paean to the mixed blessings of domestic life Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe, 2000

Cold War Books in the 'Other' Europe and What Came After Jiřina Šmejkalová, 2010-11-19 Drawing on analyses of the socio cultural context of East and Central Europe with a special focus on the Czech cultural dynamics of the Cold War and its aftermath this book offers a study of the making and breaking of the centrally controlled system of book production and reception It explores the social material and symbolic reproduction of the printed text in both official and alternative spheres and patterns of dissemination and reading Building on archival research statistical data media analyses and in depth interviews with the participants of the post 1989 de centralization and privatization of the book world it revisits the established notions of censorship and revolution in order to uncover people s performances that contributed to both the reproduction and erosion of the old regime

Grotesque Revisited Laurynas Katkus, 2013-07-26 This collection of essays aims to recapitulate the state of grotesque poetics in modern and post modern writing It concentrates on Central and Eastern Europe introducing the Western reader to the variety and ingenuity of this region s literary traditions ranging from German and Russian to Lithuanian and Romanian literatures At the same time it seeks to highlight the importance of the grotesque mode of writing in the region It includes new insights and interpretations of theories on grotesque and Menippean satire including but not limited to the works of Mikhail Bakhtin The historic scope of the volume ranges from the legacies of Nazi dictatorship and exile to the post communist times but it is especially focused on the Soviet era Scholars not only from Central and Eastern Europe but also from Great Britain Ireland and Turkey analyze the literary devices of the grotesque examining the relationship between the socio political background and subversive representations of the grotesque Many studies take on a comparative and transnational approach Alternatively some studies aim to present important and innovative creators of grotesque texts in greater detail This book which features among others contributions by Professor Galin Tihanov George Steiner Chair of Queen Mary College at the University of London Professor Alexander Ivanitsky of the Russian State University of Humanities Professor Algis Kal da of the Lithuanian Institute of Literature and Folklore Professor Peter Arnds of Trinity College Dublin and Dr Carmen Popescu of the University of Craiova Romania will appeal to a broad academic readership including both students and professors wanting to discover more about the literary grotesque and modern Central and Eastern European literature and culture

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2007-07-18 The third volume in the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe focuses on the making and remaking of those institutional structures that engender and regulate the creation distribution and reception of literature The focus here is not so much on shared institutions but rather on such region wide analogous institutional processes as the national awakening the modernist opening and the communist regimentation the canonization of texts and censorship of literature These processes which took place in all of the region s cultures were often asynchronous and subjected to different local conditions The volume s premise is that the national awakening and institutionalization of literature were symbiotically interrelated in East Central Europe Each national awakening involves a language renewal an introduction of the vernacular and its literature in schools and universities the creation of an infrastructure for the publication of books and journals clashes with censorship the founding of national academies libraries and theaters a re construction of national folklore and the writing of histories of the vernacular literature The four parts of this volume are titled 1 Publishing and Censorship 2 Theater as a Literary Institution 3 Forging Primal Pasts The Uses of Folk Poetry and 4 Literary Histories Itineraries of National Self images Multilingual Europe, Multilingual Europeans, 2015-06-29

Multilingualism is a crucial if often unrecognized marker of new European identities In this collection of essays we observe how a plurilinguist and pluricultural political entity practices and theorizes multilingualism We ask which types of multilingualism are defined encouraged or discouraged at the level of official policies but also at the level of communities We look at speakers of hegemonic or minority languages at travellers and long term migrants or their children and analyse how their conversations are represented in official documents visual art cinema literature and popular culture The volume is divided into two parts that focus respectively on Multilingual Europe and Multilingual Europeans The first series of chapters explore the extent to which multilingualism is treated as both a challenge and an asset by the European Union examine which factors contribute to the proliferation of languages globalisation the enlargement of the European Union and EU language policies The second part of the volume concentrates on the ways in which cultural productions represent the linguistic practices of Europeans in a way that emphasizes the impossibility to separate language from culture nationality but also class ethnicity or gender The chapters suggest that each form of plurilingualism needs to be carefully analysed rather than celebrated or condemned Czech and Slovak Cinema Peter Hames, 2010-08-09 This book is the first study in English to examine some of the key themes and traditions of Czech and Slovak cinema linking inter war and post war cinemas together with developments in the post Communist period It examines links between theme genre and visual style and looks at the ways in which a range of styles and traditions has extended across different historical periods and political regimes Czech and Slovak Cinema provides a unique study of areas of Central European film history that have not previously been examined in English Bohumil Hrabal (1914-97) David Short, 2004 A Feminist's Semiotic Odyssey Through Czech Literature Bronislava Volková, 1997 Themes include authors attitudes to relationships between women and men the images of women in both older and contemporary Czech literature nationalistic biases issues of responsibility active versus passive approach to life new visions added to European culture by Czech authors like J A Comenius K H Macha B Nemcova J Hasek K Capek O Brezina J Seifert B Hrabal M Kundera L Vaculik and others The Slavic Literatures and Modernism Nils Åke
