Catherine a story was the first full length work of fiction produced by William Makepeace Thackeray. It first appeared in serialized installments in Fraser's Magazine between May 1839 and February 1840 as a satire on the popular Newgate school of crime fiction. Based on the life of Catherine Hayes, an eighteenth century criminal who was burned at the stake in 1726 for murdering her husband, Thackeray developed a sneaking kindness for his heroine and the novel made Catherine and her roguish companions seem rather appealing, which was far from the author's intention.
