Swoon Rocket Bill Luoma, 1996 Doombook Michael Price, 1998 Works & Days Bill Luoma, 1998 Poetry Bill Luoma writes like an anchorman not so much an insider as a glider on the minimalist way of expressing being alive in groups with a purpose the team Once the purpose has been established a tighter focus begins to take over the love of women or narrating Douglas Bill's friend Not since Bob Gluck and Bruce Boone's camaraderie in the 70s have there been such a literary buddy's movie as this It's sketchy and knowing and gleeful Not since Thoreau has someone I know suggested that everything counts and then gone to work wherever Eileen Myles Assembling Alternatives Romana Huk, 2003-04-29 First anthology to examine the national borders of postmodern poetry False Memory Tony Lopez, 1996 Poetry FALSE MEMORY is a major political poem written through the events of the 1990s representing the damaged world that we know in all its violence and inequality Focusing on public language rather than private experience FALSE MEMORY is a hilarious collage of all the specialized jargons and advertised slogans that situate us in the postmodern world Rocket Surgeon A.E. Williams, 2017-05-28 A E Williams presents his thoughts on a variety of subjects of interest to thinking persons Bringing together a lifetime of experience as a science fiction author former aerospace materials engineer cyber security expert and irascible genius Williams provides big picture views on our place in the Universe Based on a series of blog articles written for the Speculative Fiction Showcase and including material reviewed while performing research for his series Terminal Reset Williams explores and questions some of the most basic precepts of science and physics The recent popularization of physics in television and movies has opened up this field to the ordinary lay person In these articles Mr Williams looks at why we as a species crave to leave the Mother planet and venture out into the hostile territories of uncharted space Williams explains with his own unique and perceptive worldview just how the Space Race once the core being of America's science programs has defined the processes and bureaucracy of space exploration today Williams provides a narrative of his own experiences working on high tech and cutting edge programs that led to the technological marvels we take for granted today From jet engines to smart phones from Star Trek to Interstellar Williams helps readers to understand just how much the world has been impacted science and technology Is a Mission to Mars or other form of manned space flight our future Can we afford to spend our resources on these efforts at the expense of other critical problems facing us today Follow Williams down the Rabbit Hole as he looks at Fake News the Presidential Election AGW and other contentious events in our world and body slams them using logic and the Scientific Method A E Williams makes a compelling argument that manned space exploration is not just viable but necessary to the survival of the species Rattapallax, 2003 The Mechanics of the Mirage Michel Delville, Christine Pagnoulle, 2000 Talisman, 2001 Poetry Project, 2001 Swoon Noir Bruce Andrews, 2007 Poetry The new book by prolific L A N G U A G E poet Bruce Andrews SWOON NOIR never fails to shake up linguistic expectations without ridding itself of Andrews characteristically wide ranging diction and attention to sound with lines like Ventriloquism helluva Cinderella and Rapt literalist proxy poppers Andrews has published several dozen books of poetry and performance scores many of which are also available from SPD He has taught Political Science at Fordham University since 1975 The World, 1997 Telling it Slant Mark Wallace, Steven Marks, 2002 This collection demonstrates the breadth and openness of the field of avant garde poetry by introducing a wide range of work in poetics theory and criticism from emerging writers Examining the directions innovative poetry has taken since the emergence and success of the Language movement the essays discuss new forms and the reorientation of older forms of poetry in order to embody present and ongoing involvements The essays center around four themes the relation between poetics and contemporary cultural issues new directions for avant garde practices in depth explorations of current poets and their predecessors and innovative approaches to the essay form or individual poetics Diverging from the traditional linear argumentative style of academic criticism many of the essays in this collection instead find critical forms more subtly related to poetry Viewed as a whole the essays return to a number of shared issues namely poetic form and the production of present day poetry While focusing on North American poetry the collection does reference the larger world of contemporary poetics including potential biases and omissions based on race and ethnicity Amazon com
