The Works of Beaumont and Fletcher Francis Beaumont,1883 Christopher Marlowe Richard Wilson,2014-07-15
Christopher Marlowe has provoked some of the most radical criticism of recent years There is an elective affinity it seems between this pre modern dramatist and the post modern critics whose best work has been inspired by his plays The reason suggested by this collection of essays is that Marlowe shares the post modern preoccupation with the language of power and the power of language itself As Richard Wilson shows in his introduction it is no accident that the founding essays of New Historicism were on Marlowe nor that current Queer Theorists focus so much on his images of gender and homosexuality Marlowe staged both the birth of the modern author and the origin of modern sexual desire and it is this unique conjunction that makes his drama a key to contemporary debates about the state and the self from pornography to gays in the military Gay Studies Cultural Materialism New Historicism and Reader Response Criticism are all represented in this selection which the introduction places in the light not only of theorists like Althusser Bataille and Bakhtin but also of artists and writers such as Jean Genet and Robert Mapplethorpe Many of the essays take off from Marlowe's extreme dramatisations of arson cruelty and aggression suggesting why it is that the thinker who has been most convincingly applied to his theatre is the philosopher of punishment and pain Michel Foucault Others explore the exclusiveness of this all male universe and reveal why it remains so offensive and impenetrable to feminism For what they all make disturbingly clear is Marlowe's violent untamed difference from the clichés and correctness of normative society Retrospective Reviews: 1891-1893 Richard Le Gallienne,1896

Sword Calvin F. Exoo, 2009-12-02 The Pen and the Sword is the only comprehensive examination of how the media have covered the 21st Century's 1 news story terrorism and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. This is the full story from 9/11 to the Obama doctrine and including The war in Afghanistan. There were two sides to this story but the press told only one and the untold story would return to haunt us. The campaign for war in Iraq. What did the press know and when did they know it about the web of lies that led us into war. Iraq from invasion to Mission Accomplished. When the story of war is told as patriotic hymn Playstation game or melodrama of macho heroes and bad guys dressed in black important things are left out. Aftermath from Mission Accomplished to the present. Something has changed since the Vietnam War when the press finally found its critical voice. However the 21st Century media continue to cling to an untenable pro war story even after the public has abandoned it. The Pen and the Sword uses this tragic and eye opening case study of the news at war to ask Why and to offer a critical perspective on our mass media including the latest information on the underpinnings of the news business corporate ownership the power of elites to define the news and adds three important new features of the media landscape. The media profit crisis of the late 00s and how it is affecting the news. The creation and mainstreaming of a new right wing media surround sound system. The increasing importance of entertainment media and soft news in shaping our views. Intended Audience Providing a critical perspective on our mass media this text is ideal for undergraduate courses such as Media this is the most detailed analysis of media representations of the current war that I have seen. The chronological development of the journalistic narrative of the war is engaging and persuasive. This work is a good example of how responsible academics can contribute to the public dialogue. Harry W Haines Department of Communication Trinity University. The writing is fantastic. Very easy to read to understand and to synthesize. The arguments are well crafted and well documented. This is the most up to date analysis of the media coverage of the Iraq War I have read and it would put news coverage of the run up to the War into context. It's a fun read it's accessible for students and it's timely. What more could a professor ask for. Alison D Dagnes Department of Political Science Shippensburg University. The news media pay a lot of lip service to the importance of objective reporting and to their role in maintaining a healthy democracy. This book successfully challenges both assertions. Exoo's book provides an exhaustive illustration of what's wrong with the news media using a very relevant and timely example. Robert Heiner Department of Social Science Plymouth State University. This text will challenge students to reexamine their beliefs about the news media helping them to become more critical citizens. In doing this the text would engage students' attention in crucial developments in the media in politics and in the intersection of the two. Paul R Brewer Department of Journalism and Mass Communication University of Wisconsin Milwaukee. Punch Mark
