Sympathy And Solidarity:

Sympathy and Solidarity Sandra Lee Bartky, 2002-01-21 In a rare full length volume renowned feminist thinker Sandra Lee Bartky brings together eight essays in one volume Sympathy and Solidarity A philosophical work accessible to an educated general audience the essays reflect the intersection of the author's eye work and sometimes her politics Two motifs connect the works first all deal with feminist topics and themes second most deal with the reality of oppression especially in the disguised and subtle ways it can be manifested

Women's Emancipation and Civil Society Organisations

Christina Schwabenland, Chris Lange, Jenny Onyx, Sachiko Nakagawa, 2016-10-05 Available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence Women are at the heart of civil society organisations Through them they have achieved many successes challenged oppressive practices at a local and global level and have developed outstanding entrepreneurial activities Yet Civil Service Organisation CSO research tends to ignore considerations of gender and the rich history of activist feminist organisations is rarely examined This collection examines the nexus between the emancipation of women and their roles in these organisations Featuring contrasting studies from a wide range of contributors from different parts of the world it covers emerging issues such as the role of social media in organising the significance of religion in many cultural contexts activism in Eastern Europe and the impact of environmental degradation on women's lives Asking whether involvement in CSOs offers a potential source of emancipation for women or maintains the status quo this anthology will also have an impact on policy and practice in relation to equal opportunities

In Justice Ann-Cathrin Jarl, The surprisingly vehement demonstrations at recent meetings of international monetary organizations have alerted people to the dangers of new global economic arrangements Are there any fundamental standards within economic theory How can economies and economic proposals best be measured What does economic justice mean today Spurred especially by the situation of women in the global household Ann Cathrin Jarl in this considerable contribution focuses on promising work in feminist economics and feminist ethics Jarl articulates feminist critiques of neoclassical economic theory objectivity in economics and current understandings of rights equality and power She derives an alternative social theory from feminist ethics and she lands on provision for basic human needs as the benchmark of economic justice In her final chapters Jarl offers a theory of economic justice aimed at strengthening the global household and bringing the claims of justice to the world of markets

Introduction to Turkish Labour Law Tankut Centel, 2017-09-12 This book provides essential information on the legal rights of employers and employees in Turkey plus up to date sections on wages working hours employment contracts discrimination laws and unions The work mainly consists of three parts introduction individual labour law and collective labour law in Turkey The extensive material and numerous court decisions presented in each chapter will introduce readers to the major current debates in labour law and encourage them to engage in critical and independent assessment As such the book offers an engaging and accessible overview of the development and status quo of labour law and industrial relations issues in Turkey

Restrictions

on the Right to Strike Bernd Waas, 2025-10-30 Bulletin of Comparative Labour Relations 120 Few issues in the field of labour and employment law are more controversial than the right to strike Although the limits of the right are often the subject of heated debate one thing is clear the right to strike is not without limits This anthology offers a comprehensive overview of restrictions on the right to strike at international and national levels and provides an insight into the different approaches in the legal systems The contributors of the volume are all experts in the field of labour law who are intimately familiar with the subject matter This volume examines the law of the International Labour Organization the European Convention on Human Rights and the European Social Charter within the framework of the Council of Europe and various national legal systems in Europe Particular attention is paid to the question of the right to strike in the important area of essential services As the right to strike and its limits are generally of great interest at international and national levels and as legal developments in this area have recently accelerated in many places this highly topical book is recommended not only to labour law scholars but also to political decision makers representatives of the social partners and practitioners Slavery and Sentiment

News Coverage of Global Disasters Michael McCluskey, 2020-11-13 News Coverage of Global Disasters Journalism s Power to Aid Healing and Recovery addresses an underexplored aspect of news arguing that journalism helps people heal and recover in the aftermath of significant traumas This comparative analysis draws from local and international news in eight countries around the world that suffered a natural disaster in 2018 This book evaluates ten news themes that aid healing coping hope and recovery during and after a natural disaster Analysis shows that these ten characteristics are a common element within news transcending national borders McCluskey brings together contemporary theories of news choice and practice with examination of the journalistic culture within each country Analysis also includes contextual and structural factors within each country and national disaster Scholars interested in journalism crisis communication and media studies will find this book particularly useful Toward a Healthy Society Milton Fisk, 2000 Ideally the public fund behind this insurance would be derived from a progressive income tax BOOK JACKET Professional Ethics Education: Studies in Compassionate Empathy Bruce Maxwell, 2008-04-01 1 1 Practical Ethics Education at an Impasse Why is some practical ethics training a requirement of nearly all programmes in higher education The short answer is that it is thought to be conducive to ethical decision making and ethical behaviour In recent years the received idea that competency in moral reasoning implies moral responsibility on the ground has been the subject of critical attention Today researchers in moral education widely regard moral reasoning as but one among at least four dimensions of moral development alongside moral motivation moral character and moral sensitivity Rest 1986 Reflecting these changes educationalists in the diverse fields of medicine education business and applied ethics can now be found openly questioning how to take practical ethics education beyond the development of skills in moral reasoning Frequently topping the list of suggested improvements is to provide support for empathic capacities of response This work gives this proposal the systematic attention that it deserves Contemporary applied ethics and by extension practical and professional ethics education can be considered an offshoot of the broad philosophical doctrine of moral realism Moral realism takes many forms but in broad outline it is an established meta ethical position that emerged as a seemingly attractive alternative to another family of established philosophical positions that sometimes goes under the name of expressivism The Psychology of the Emotions Théodule Ribot,1898 The Conservator ,1893 Revitalization Through Transactional Analysis Group Treatment Giorgio Piccinino,2023-12-11 This innovative book describes the original essence particular to the human species and details the steps necessary to help re establish this essence in cases when it has deteriorated in a therapeutic group context of solidarity and closeness Disappointment in primary relationships particularly triggers the deterioration of self offering an initially expansive and trusting disposition to affectivity and love People suffer when like any fragile and delicate living being early in life they fail to evolve according to the nature of their species Therapeutic work is therefore described as mainly oriented to reactivate in a group a new welcoming family the original natural drives with new permissions new trials and new joyful experiences The book contains the methods and techniques routinely used by the author and two case studies faithfully transcribed and commented on particularly for the reactivation of the affective drive Revitalization Through Transactional Analysis Group Treatment is an insightful addition to the literature for transactional analysts in practice and in training for professionals interested in the theory and practice of transactional analysis Piccinino writes in a compelling manner allowing for the content to be accessible to anyone seeking to understand human processes and wellbeing The Journal of Philosophy ,1904 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 The Journal of Philosophy, Psychology and Scientific Methods ,1904 Perspectives on Global Development and Technology ,2005 Working Paper Series ,2003 The Church Missionary Intelligencer ,1893 Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record ,1893 The Fortnightly Review ,1872 Report of the ...
