Alexandra Colen,1984 Language for Specific Purposes Giuliana Elena Garzone,Dermot Heaney,Giorgia Riboni,2017-01-06 This volume brings together work by both well known scholars and emerging researchers in the various areas of Language for Specific Purposes LSP such as political legal medical and business discourse The volume is divided into three parts in order to align rather than separate three different but related aspects of LSP namely translation linguistic research and domain specific communication on the web Underlying all the contributions here is the growing awareness of the ever increasing multiformity of specialised communication and the ever wider social implications of the communicative situations in which it is embedded especially where it involves the need to move across languages cultures and modes as in translation and interpreting The contributions consistently bear witness to the need to review received notions pose new questions and explore fresh perspectives The picture that emerges is one of extreme complexity in which researchers into specifically linguistic aspects of LSPs and their translation across languages and media declare their awareness of the pressing need to come to terms with a wide range of social pragmatic intercultural and political factors above and beyond socio technical knowledge of the domains under investigation

The Syntax of Prenominal and Postnominal Adjectives in Old English Agnieszka Pysz,2009 This book is the first monograph which provides a comprehensive discussion of the syntactic behaviour of Old English OE adnominal adjectives Drawing on the empirical data retrieved from the York Toronto Helsinki Parsed Corpus of Old English Prose Taylor Warner Pintzuk Beths 2003 the author proposes an analysis of OE adjectives by means of a theoretical apparatus couched in the framework of Chomsky TM's generative grammar. The analysis incorporates the following properties of OE adjectives: their inflectional patterning i.e. whether adjectives take weak and strong inflectional endings, the so called adjective stacking i.e. whether adjectives can occur in uninterrupted strings, the surface placement with respect to their complements, the surface placement with respect to the nominal head. The author observes that the differences between prenominal and postnominal adjectives go far beyond the superficial difference in their surface placement. She argues therefore that the two types of adjectives require two different theoretical treatments. The volume consists of five chapters. It is supplemented by four appendices and an extensive bibliography.
