The Greek Passion:

The Greek Passion Nikos Kazantzakis, 1954 The Greek elders of Lycovrissi gather to select principals from the village for the Passion Play held every seven years at Easter As this passionate story of savage emotions and primitive religious feelings evolves the actors begin to change according to their roles in the biblical story We see man s desperate attempt to war against evil in the world about him as greed and lust struggle with pity and moral justice Book jacket The Greek Passion, 1981 The Greek Passion [program] Brian Large, Indiana University. School of Music, 1981 The Greek Passion: a Study in People and Politics Kenneth Young, 1969 The Greek passion Bohuslav Martinů, 1961 The Greek Passion Kenneth Young, 1969 The Greek passion, 1999 The Greek Passion Bohuslav Martinů, 2001 The Greek Passion Bohuslav Martinů, 1981 The Greek Passion. Anthonakes, 1957 The Greek Passion Bohuslav Martinů, Welsh National Opera, 1984 Martinů's Mysterious Accident Michael Brim Beckerman, 2007 Bohuslav Martinů 1890 1959 was one of the most prolific composers in the 20th century Despite the fact that he lived for several years in the United States and had many of his works premiered in this country he still stands as an enigma This collection of essays by an international group of experts is dedicated to the memory of Michael Henderson who died in 1994 at the age of 47 Henderson was in the process of writing a biography of the composer These essays include a range of new approaches to Martinů Judy Mabary gives a concise history of Martinů s collaboration with choreographer Eric Hawkins The Strangler Ales Brezina looks penetratingly at the often tortured relationship between Martinů and the Czechoslovak government and Michael Beckerman explores questions of construction in Martinů s Piano Concerto No 2 Shorter pieces by Czech scholars Isa Popelka and Jaroslav Mihule are also included In addition there will be an essay by Michael Henderson on Martinů s Mysterious Accident which will shed light on one of the most harrowing events in the composer s life Martinů and His World Ales Brezina, Michael Beckerman, 2025-08-12 A collection of essays and documents illuminating the work of Bohuslav Martin published in collaboration with the Bard Music Festival Bohuslav Martin was one of the most extraordinary and prolific composers of the twentieth century Martin and His World offers a portrait of the composer in all his complexity Born in the present day Czech Republic Martin was rendered stateless as a result of events around World War II and the Communist takeover of Czechoslovakia He lived for more than a decade in the United States where he had great success and died in Switzerland Martin composed more than four hundred works in all genres of instrumental and vocal music and infused each with a special combination of the lyrical and the dramatic Alongside an unerring sense of form his works draw on a kaleidoscope of elements from such sources as Dvořák American jazz of the 1920s English Renaissance madrigals the late Baroque concerto grosso French Impressionism Czech and Moravian folk songs and the contemporary music of his day This volume pays special attention to Martin s little known operatic works and presents for the first time both a recently discovered personal diary and a series of interviews with important figures who were part of his American years Martin and His World reveals the composer as an essential voice of his time an original thinker about music past and present who lived through the political complexities of the twentieth century and stood up to them both as a human being and as an artist

The Greek Passion ,1981      Charles Mackerras Nigel Simeone,John Tyrrell,2015 By the time of his death in 2010 at the age of 84 Sir Charles Mackerras had achieved widespread recognition recorded extensively and developed into a conductor of major international significance A detailed narrative account of his life is complemented by chapters written by performers and scholars who worked closely with Mackerras as well as interviews with his family The book is illustrated with photographs and documents and it includes a comprehensive discography along with listings of many of his concert and opera performances While Sir Charles whole life is considered emphasis is given to his final quarter century a period in which so many important projects were realized      The "Greek Passion" in a Previously Unknown Version at the Bregenzer Festspiele Petr Veber,1999

Signs of Change ,2021-11-08 Signs of Change Transformations of Christian Traditions and their Representation in the Arts 1000 2000 focuses on the changing relationships between what gradually emerged as the Arts and Christianity the latter term covering both a stream of ideas and its institutions The book as a whole is addressed to a general academic audience concerned with issues of cultural history while the individual essays are also intended as scholarly contributions within their own fields A collaborative effort by twenty five European and American scholars representing disciplines ranging from aesthetics to the history of art and architecture from literature music and the theatre to classics church history and theology the volume is an interdisciplinary study of intermedial phenomena generally in larger cultural and intellectual contexts The focus of topics extends from single concrete objects to sets of abstract concepts and values and from a single moment in time to an entire millennium While Signs of Change acknowledges the importance of synthesizing efforts essential to hermeneutically informed scholarship in order to counterbalance generalized historical narratives with detailed investigations broad accounts are juxtaposed with specialized research projects The deliberately unchronological grouping of contributions underlines the effort to further discussion about methodologies for writing cultural history      The Era of the Martyrs Aaltje Hidding,2020-08-24

One of the most traumatic experiences of Late Antique Christians was the Great Persecution begun by Emperor Diocletian and his Tetrarchic colleagues in 303 CE Here Aaltje Hidding unites research of traditional memory studies with work done by cognitive scientists to examine how they remembered the Persecution The resulting methodological framework the cognitive ecology systemically studies all what can be covered by this term social surroundings cognitive artefacts and the physical environment and bridges the gap between individual and collective memory The author analyses the remembrance of the Persecution in three different regions along the Nile river In Oxyrhynchus the thousands of papyrus fragments found at the city s rubbish dump give a vivid image of the martyrs in the daily lives of the Oxyrhynchites In Antinoopolis known for the cult of the physician saint Colluthus she zooms in on the rituals and practices at a martyr's sanctuary Finally in Dandara the rich hagiographical dossier of the anchorite Paphnutius shows how old memories of the Persecution became mixed with new monastic experiences The Bohairic and Greek Passion of Paphnutius appear in their first complete English translations
