Swords Into Plowshares Roger Burggraefe, Marc Vervenne, 1991 Roger Burggraefe is professor in ordinary at the Catholic University of Leuven where he teaches moral theology and is chairperson of the Center for the Study of the Theology of Peace Marc Vervenne lectures at the Catholic University of Leuven in the field of Old Testament studies and serves as Academic Secretary for the University's Faculty of Theology

Swords into Plowshares David Hoicka, In a world that often feels torn by conflict and strife the ancient words of the prophet Isaiah offer a vision of profound hope They will beat their swords into plowshares he wrote and their spears into pruning hooks It's a powerful image a future where the tools of war are transformed into the instruments of peace and prosperity For the defense industry this vision is more than just a lofty ideal It's a roadmap for a brighter tomorrow As the world changes and the priorities of nations shift the companies that have long been at the forefront of military innovation are faced with a choice They can cling to the ways of the past or they can adapt evolve and apply their immense strengths to solving the challenges of a new era This book is the story of those who have chosen the latter path In the pages that follow you'll meet the visionary leaders and organizations who are at the vanguard of a powerful transformation From pioneering environmental remediation to revolutionizing civilian manufacturing they're turning swords into plowshares in the most literal sense But this isn't just a story of corporate strategy or market trends It's a profoundly human tale of courage resilience and the unshakable belief that a better world is possible Behind every innovation and every bold new venture are countless individuals engineers and entrepreneurs dreamers and doers who have staked their livelihoods and their futures on the conviction that their skills and expertise can make a real difference Their journeys have not been easy The path from conflict to creation is strewn with obstacles and uncertainties But through their struggles and their triumphs these pioneers are charting a course that others can follow They're proving that the choice between swords and plowshares is a false one that with enough creativity and commitment we can forge a future where both people and profits can flourish This is a message that matters to us all Whether you're a defense industry executive or a concerned global citizen the transformation chronicled in these pages holds profound implications It speaks to the power of innovation to drive positive change the importance of corporate responsibility in an interconnected world and the potential for even the most entrenched institutions to evolve and adapt But more than that it speaks to the resilience of the human spirit In a time of global challenges and existential threats it's easy to give in to despair But the stories you're about to read are a powerful reminder that another way is possible That by turning our swords into plowshares by channeling our resources and our resolve into the work of building rather than destroying we can create a world of prosperity sustainability and peace So let's draw inspiration from the visionaries in these pages Let's see in their example not just a path for the defense industry but a model for us all And let's move forward with the conviction that together we can make Isaiah's ancient prophecy a modern reality The journey from swords to plowshares is one we must all take and it starts here with the turn of a page This book is priced at an affordable price point to enable widest availability If this collection of inspiring stories how to make Swords into Plowshares saves even one life or brings happiness to a single person it will fill me also with hope and happiness knowing I ve made a difference as the author David Hoicka Swords into Plowshares, Volume One Arthur J. Laffin, Anne Montgomery, 2010-05-01 Why is nonviolent civil disobedience divine disobedience an imperative for bringing about disarmament What is the connection between faith nonviolence and resistance How does one prepare for nonviolent acts of resistance How does one respond to the charges brought in court How does one view and cope with the consequences of imprisonment How have some people nonviolently responded to U S intervention in Iraq and Central America and in war torn countries like Bosnia What are the main tenets of U S nuclear and foreign policy in the post Cold War era What is the human cost of weapons production What does it mean to live in a national security state What are some of the challenges faced by people in the U S who are concerned about justice and peace The primary goal of this revised edition of Swords into Plowshares is to provide some initial answers to these and related questions Contributors to this edition include Bob Aldridge Daniel and Philip Berrigan Samuel H Day Jr Jim and Shelly Douglass Elizabeth McAlister Molly Rush and a host of other activists Swords Into Plowshares, Volume Two Arthur J. Laffin, 2010-05-01 On September 9 1980 the Plowshares Eight entered a General Electric plant in King of Prussia Pennsylvania and enacted the biblical command to beat swords into plowshares by hammering on the nose cones of two nuclear warheads and pouring blood on documents Since that time other small groups and individuals have entered manufacturing plants and military bases throughout the U S as well as in Australia Germany England Ireland Sweden and Holland to disarm components of nuclear and conventional weapons systems As of Spring 2003 there have been over 150 people who using hammers and other symbols have carried out over 75 plowshares and related disarmament actions This book recounts each of the actions that have occurred over the last twenty three years and includes information about the trials and sentences plowshares activists have received Photos of some of the actions and participants are also included in this chronology as well as other resources for peace and justice Swords Into Plows Lillian D. Gardner, 2012-01-19 Swords into Plows is the story of an Ohio boy who wanted to be a blacksmith In the nineteenth century when this story takes place it was the custom to work for someone in the trade you wanted to learn However because John s father enlisted in the Union Army John was left to take care of the farm He farmed and found some time to work at the blacksmith shop too In the three years that John s dad was fighting in the South John did a lot of thinking about war and peace facing at home the daily reality of change Having few options he chose to find his inner strength and grow in reliance on God I wrote Swords into Plows in memory of my own grandfather John Fremont Dellinger whose life somewhat parallels the story Deciding to write the story I found William Dellinger s war record As I merge historical facts with family lore about my grandfather and watch families become separated by war today it is my hope that children like John are also wondering how peace happens Lillian Gardner Swords Into Plowshares Trevor Findlay,1986 Swords to Plowshares Warren Snodgrass,2000 Against the backdrop of upheaval throughout the Soviet Empire the people of East Germany arose in spontaneous revolt and threw off the bonds of tyranny In the face of police brandishing truncheons and soldiers wielding machine guns they held candles and sang Walled within an atheist land they flocked to churches and prayed Labeled enemies of the State they chanted defiantly We Are the People The epicenter of the revolution was Leipzig in the St Nikolas Church For years handfults of dissidents had gathered there on Monday evenings for prayer services but in 1988 attendance suddenly increased and by the fall of 1989 the sanctuary was full and people literally spilled onto the streets outside In response the State dispatched its security forces threatening violence to restore public order The stage was set for a decisive confrontation between the vanguard of the proletariat and the workers themselves Yet the story is more complex than a struggle between Church and State In fact Church leaders hoped to reform not replace socialist society while communist officials who refused to deviate from the scientific worldview of Marxism Leninism nevertheless conceded the Church a role within socialism And many who attended the prayer services and then demonstrated outside St Nikolas had long ago wearied of communist propaganda but had little interest in Christianity They simply wanted out of the German Democratic Republic and so they used the sanctuary of the Church to launch protests they hoped would speed their exit On a larger scale the drama was the end of a grand political experiment pitting democracy against the Party State of Marxism Leninism Among the countries segregated into the Western and Eastern blocs after World War II Germany had the un Swords into plowshares ROGER BURGGRAEVE,1991 Swords Into Plowshares, Volume Two Arthur J.
