

Here's what an internationally renowned writer says about Sydney Omarr's analysis of you!

Henry Miller, one of the world's most respected and controversial authors, is fascinated with Omarr's astrology and interpretation of the zodiacal signs. Here he tells why:

Presumably every one is familiar with at least one sign in the zodiac—his own. But is he? After listening to a description of one's sign, as outlined by Sydney Omarr, even the most knowing individual may well be astonished to discover some of the hidden aspects of his nature, or at any rate, some aspects which he has either ignored or preferred to forget.

We see what we want to see, we hear what we want to hear, whether it concerns the world, ourselves, our friends or our loved ones. The great opportunity which astrology offers is to permit us to see whole. If we are not blind and prejudiced we may, through astrology, discover disagreeable traits not only in others but in ourselves as well. Whether we can do anything to correct our faults is a question. It is assumed that once we know our shortcomings we can overcome them, but this is a problem each individual has to solve for himself. At the worst, which happens to be the best, we can learn to accept ourselves for what we are and not look for miracles.

The amazing thing about Omarr's analyses of the various signs is that, though there are millions who fall into each category, a Capricorn individual or whatever he may be will recognize his portrait unmistakably. He will wince, chuckle, grin, be irritated or nod approvingly as the many and varying aspects of his personality are told off. He may regard such delineation as uncannily accurate or brush it aside as some sort of happy coincidence. But, whether skeptic or believer, he will not be able to deny the impact of these revelations. If he wishes, he can verify Omarr's readings by analyzing subjects of the same sign as his own among friends, lovers, business associates or world figures in no matter what realm.

Forewarned, forearmed, the saying goes. How well it works depends on the individual. The purpose of astrology is not to teach one how to thwart destiny but how to live up to it, in accordance with it. In other words, to become aware. Human beings are neither good nor bad, but a mixture of both. The same is true for the twelve signs of the zodiac. We carry within us something of every sign. We cannot hope to achieve perfection, but we can hope to make the most of the qualities we were endowed with at birth.

To become truly unique individuals is the goal, not happiness, money, fame or some pleasant permanent state of being. To be wholly oneself, that is the ultimate one may expect. And this applies whether one elects to be a thief, a prostitute or a criminal, as much as if one chooses to be a saint, a statesman or an artist. It takes all kinds to make a world; every role is as important as the other. The one thing you cannot expect, no matter what your sign, is to be something other than you are.

I don't know of any work on astrology which gives such a full, penetrating analysis of the characteristics of the signs of the zodiac as Sydney Omarr has put together. What we have in these recordings is the result of many years of study and experience, plus an uncommon insight and a fundamental love and understanding of human nature.
