The Grace Of Difference A Canadian Feminist Theological Ethic:

The Grace of Difference Marilyn J. Legge, 1992 Marion J Legge addresses theological ethics from the context of Canadian women especially the experience of marginalized women in Canada. Beginning with a critical reassessment of Canadian Radical Christianity she argues that approaches that center on question of economic justice have nevertheless overlooked the day to day economic realities of Canadian women. Legge develops a reformulated critical theory of culture that though it emphasizes difference avoids premature abstraction and misplaced generalizations. She seeks a voice to articulate the theological and ethical dimensions of women's experience in the texts of three Canadian novels: In Search of April Raintree by Beatrice Cullen, The Diviners by Margaret Laurence and Obasan by Joy Kogawa. Feminist Theology with a Canadian Accent Mary Ann Beavis, Elaine Guillemin, Barbara Helen Pell, 2008 An examination of the Canadian feminist theology context its history its multicultural perspective its expression of marginal experiences its commitment to social justice its exploration of eco feminism and its embrace of cultures ethnicities and the unique contribution of Canada's First Nations peoples.

Doing Ethics in a Pluralistic World Phyllis D. Airhart, Marilyn J. Legge, Gary L. Redcliffe, 2002-05-30 Doing Ethics in a Pluralistic World is an apt title for this collection of essays in honour of Roger C Hutchinson who over many decades has encouraged and participated in shaping a Canadian contextual social ethics. His abiding interest in social ethics and in religious engagement with public issues is reflected in his life's work seeking the consensus and self knowledge required to achieve cooperation in the search for a just participatory and sustainable society. One of Roger Hutchinson's many notable accomplishments is his development of a method of dialogue for ethical clarification in situations of diversity. Some of the essays collected here apply this method to specific issues while others discuss how religious persons and organizations can and do co operate in a pluralistic world to achieve social and ecological well being. All essays are of keen interest to those concerned with the role and function of ethics at the matrix of religious conviction and social transformation. For nearly three decades Roger Hutchinson has been based at Victoria University in Toronto first in religious studies then at Emmanuel College where he completed his teaching career as professor of church and society while serving as principal from 1996 to 2001.

Linking Sexuality and Gender Tracy J. Trothen, 2006-01-01 Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women? Tracy J. Trothen looks at the United Church as a uniquely Canadian institution and explores how it has approached gender and sexuality issues. She argues that how the Church deals with these issues influences its ability to name violence against women. In examining the Church's early approaches to gender and sexuality, Tracy J. Trothen discovered that the United Church had tended to see certain structures or roles as sacred and others as demonic. For example while sex outside marriage was bad or improper sexual expression within marriage was largely deemed as proper or good no matter what manifestation it took. This assumption allowed much violence within families and marriages to go unchallenged. Trothen uncovers significant shifts in this approach through the examination of such issues as redemptive homes marriage pornography abortion the ordination of women and family Then analyzing three recent case studies she demonstrates the value of women s voices in challenging dominant world views Finally she suggests how the Church s approach to human sexuality and gender has facilitated or obstructed the move to address violence against women The findings in Linking Sexuality and Gender can be applied to faiths outside the United Church and will be important to anyone interested in church and society sexuality gender or the causal dynamics behind one Canadian institution s response to violence against women Tracy J Trothen is an assistant professor of systematic theology and ethics and director of field education at Queen s Theological College Queen s University Canada She was ordained in the United Church of Canada Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women The Theology of The United Church of Canada Don Schweitzer,Robert C. classism prevalent within the church and society in an effort to broaden and inform pastoral caregivers with the knowledge and the skills needed to respond effectively to oppressed and marginalized persons.
