The Granite Man:

The Granite Men Jim Fiddes,2019-04-02 Granite is the most unyielding of building materials The great granite quarries of the North East are silent now as are virtually all of the 100 granite yards that existed in Aberdeen around the year 1900 Yet in its time the granite industry of north east Scotland was the engine that built civilisations As early as the sixteenth century granite from Aberdeen and its vicinities was building castles In the heyday of the mid nineteenth century the granite men of the North East hewed this material from the bowels of the earth and used it to fashion the iconic structures that defined the age It paved the streets and embankments of London It was used to build bridges over the Thames It was carved into monuments for kings and commoners not only in Britain but all over the world None of it possible without the men that toiled in those quarries and yards This is the story of those granite men and their industry Stone ,1894 The Granite Man Margo Cobb,1996 My Winter on the Nile Charles Dudley Warner,1892 The Young Englishwoman BEETON,1875
