ANGWIN,2004-07-01 Learning can be fun and this book proves it The author transports you to some of the most interesting travel destinations in the world and explains why they are so incredibly fascinating Historical perspective geography cultural insight and personal perspective all combine to make this far more than just another travel book When you finish a chapter you feel you have gained a new perspective a new appreciation and new insight into that country Each destination forms an independent story and makes the book ideal as a bedtime reader a perfect short read while waiting in airports and a delightful gift book Venture into the mysteries of Saudi Arabia the realities of modern day Bali and Java the Scandinavia not settled by the Vikings two countries in Africa that offer startling contrasts despite similar backgrounds the ten best train trips in the world the resurgence of Chile the unknown islands of the Indian Ocean and the plight of Nicaragua The author an award winning college professor of psychology who loves to travel is witty sardonic insightful optimistic and a great story teller

Royal Responsibility in Anglo-Norman Historical Writing

Emily Anne Winkler,2017 It has long been established that the crisis of 1066 generated a florescence of historical writing in the first half of the twelfth century Emily A Winkler presents a new perspective on previously unqueried matters investigating how historians individual motivations and assumptions produced changes in the kind of history written across the Conquest She argues that responses to the Danish Conquest of 1016 and the Norman Conquest of 1066 changed dramatically within two generations of the latter conquest Repeated conquest could signal repeated failures and sin across the orders of society yet early twelfth century historians in England not only extract English kings and people from a history of failure but also establish English kingship as a worthy office on a European scale Royal Responsibility in Anglo Norman Historical Writing illuminates the consistent historical agendas of four historians William of Malmesbury Henry of Huntingdon John of Worcester and Geffrei Gaimar In their narratives of England s eleventh century history these twelfth century historians expanded their approach to historical explanation to include individual responsibility and accountability within a framework of providential history In this regard they made substantial departures from their sources These historians share a view of royal responsibility independent both of their sources primarily the Anglo Saxon Chronicle and of any political agenda that placed English and Norman allegiances in opposition Although the accounts diverge widely in the interpretation of character all four are concerned more with the effectiveness of England s kings than with the legitimacy of their origins Their new shared view of royal responsibility represents a distinct phenomenon in England s twelfth century historiography relations been more powerfully staged than in the American South This book charts the turbulent course of southern race relations from the colonial origins of the plantation system to the maturation of slavery in the nineteenth century through the rise of a new racial order during the Civil War and Reconstruction to the civil rights revolution of the twentieth century While the history of race in the southern states has been shaped by a basic struggle between black and white the authors show how other forces such as class and gender have complicated the colour line They distinguish clearly between ideas about race mostly written and disseminated by intellectuals and politicians and their reception by ordinary southerners both black and white As a result readers are presented with a broad over arching view of race in the American South throughout its chequered history Key Features racial issues are the key area of interest for those who study the American South race is the driving engine of Southern history unique in its focus on race broad coverage origins of the plantation system to the situation in the South today     The Grand Gazetteer Andrew Brice,1759     The New York Times Index ,2006     Year Book, Trotting and Pacing United States Trotting Association,1968     The Historical Evidences of the Truth of the Scripture Records George Rawlinson,1885     Imperial Reference Library ,1898     The Grand Gazetteer Or Topographic Dictionary, Etc Andrew Brice,1760     The Illustrated sporting & dramatic news ,1879     Dictionary of National Biography ,1890     Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen,1890     Dictionary of National Biography Sir Leslie Stephen,Sir Sidney Lee,1898     A Dictionary of Greek and Roman Biography and Mythology: Earinus-Nyx William Smith,1880     Earinus-Nyx William Smith,1880     The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1887     Nelsons' hand-book to the Isle of Wight William Henry Davenport Adams,1877
