Peacebuilding and the Arts Jolyon Mitchell,Giselle Vincett,Theodora Hawksley,Hal

Culbertson,2019-11-19 Ending violent conflict requires societies to take leaps of political imagination Artistic communities are often uniquely placed to help promote new thinking by enabling people to see things differently In place of conflict s binary divisions artists are often charged with exploring the ambiguities and possibilities of the excluded middle Yet their role in peacebuilding remains little explored This excellent and agenda setting volume provides a ground breaking look at a range of artistic practices and the ways in which they have attempted to support peacebuilding a must read for all practitioners and policy makers and indeed other peacemakers looking for inspiration Professor Christine Bell FBA Professor of Constitutional Law Assistant Principal Global Justice and co director of the Global Justice Academy The University of Edinburgh UK Peacebuilding and the Arts offers an impressive and impressively comprehensive engagement with the role that visual art music literature film and theatre play in building peaceful and just societies Without idealizing the role of the arts the authors explore their potential and limits in a wide range of cases from Korea Cambodia Colombia and Northern Ireland to Uganda Rwanda South Africa and Israel Palestine Roland Bleiker Professor of International Relations University of Queensland Australia and author of Aesthetics and World Politics and Visual Global Politics Peacebuilding and the Arts is the first publication to focus critically and comprehensively on the relations between the creative arts and peacebuilding expanding the conventional boundaries of peacebuilding and conflict transformation to include the artist actor poet novelist dramatist musician dancer and film director The sections on the visual arts music literature film and theatre include case studies from very different cultures contexts and settings but a central theme is that the creative arts can play a unique and crucial role in the building of peaceful and just societies with the power to transform relationships heal wounds and nurture compassion and empathy Peacebuilding and the Arts is a vital and unique resource which will stimulate critical discussion and further research but it will also help to refine and reframe our understanding of peacebuilding While it will undoubtedly become mandatory reading for students of peacebuilding and the arts its original approach and dynamic exploratory style should attract a much wider interdisciplinary audience Professor Anna King Professor of Religious Studies and Social Anthropology and Director of Research Centre of Religion Reconciliation and Peace WCRRP University of Winchester UK This volume explores the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Through a series of original essays authors consider some of the ways that different art forms including film theatre music literature dance and other forms of visual art can contribute to the processes and practices of building peace This book breaks new ground by setting out fresh ways of analysing the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Divided into five sections on the Visual Arts Music Literature Film and Theatre Dance over 20 authors offer conceptual overviews of each art form as well as new case studies from around the globe and critical reflections on how the arts can contribute to peacebuilding As interest in the topic increases no other book approaches this complex relationship in the way that Peacebuilding and the Arts does By bringing together the insights of scholars and practitioners working at the intersection of the arts and peacebuilding this book develops a series of unique critical perspectives on the interaction of diverse art forms with a range of peacebuilding endeavours Is God Christian? D. Perman Niles, 2017-10-01 Is God Christian? Christian Identity in Public Theology An Asian Contribution explores the theological efforts of the current generation as a collective enterprise to survey methods that in the arena of public theology confront and reject the assertion that God is Christian or there is a Christian god among other gods The theological methods discussed in this book are not concerned narrowly with problems in Christian theology but rather with challenges posed for Christian theology in the wider arena of social and political life in Asia

Asian Christian Theologians in Dialogue with Buddhism

Kenneth Fleming, 2002 This book is a study of three of Asia's most respected contemporary theologians Kosuke Koyoma Choan Seng

Song and Aloysius Pieris It gives an introduction to Asian Buddhism and the Christian dialogue with Buddhists in Asia

Furthermore it examines the work of each theologian in detail looking at the method and content of their dialogue and outlining its impact upon their respective theologies The book provides a critique of their dialogue and engages with the theological issues that have emerged In areas such as religious identity theological method and liberation theology it is shown that their conversation with Buddhism contributes to the development of a genuinely Asian theology and moreover raises important challenges to the worldwide theological community churches and to those engaged in interreligious dialogue Koreana Collection Yongsan Library, 1982 The Silence of Love Peter H. Lee, 1980 emerging themes and voices engaged in Asian Christian theology today Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology provides the latest extension of interpretive trends reflected in earlier volumes now unavailable such as the classic Living Theology in Asia

Arranged thematically Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology first captures the ongoing dialogue between the dominant theologies of Asia and the continent's subalterns women tribals and untouchables such as Indian dalits and Japanese burakumin These essayists including Kuribayashi Teruo Arvind P Nirmal Nirmal Minz and Chung Hyun Kyung share the experience of those people who are treated as invisible non entities who recover self identity and self validation in theological expression The next group of essayists among them Peter K H Lee Choi Man Ja Jyoti Sahi Archie Lee Chi Chung and Samuel

Rayan provide a wealth of stunning interpretive data in the uniquely Asian method of extra textual hermeneutics This perspective weaves Asian literary and non literary resources into theology Third Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology offers examples of the narrative theology that is also a cultural outgrowth of Asia including writings by Aloysius Pieris Kwok Pui

Lan M M Thomas Astrid Lobo Gajiwala and Stanley J Samartha Their highly personal stories directly integrate lived experience with theology which as Sugirtharajah points out is a prerequisite for any vibrant dynamic theology Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology concludes with essays that document some crucial contemporary issues for Asian theology. These include Wang Hsien Chi on Taiwanese homeland theology, Noh Jung Sun on Korean reunification, Felix Wilfred on human rights, Samuel Rayan on the environmental crisis and Tissa Balasuriya on the responsibilities of the theologian in contexts of ethnic conflict. International Christian Literature Documentation Project: Author-editor index, corporate name index, 1993
