The Golden Apples Of The Sun Bantam Science Fiction:

The Golden Apples of the Sun, 1979 The Golden Apples of the Sun Ray Bradbury, 1954 Ray Bradbury
Jonathan R. Eller, William F. Touponce, 2004 This is a textual bibliographical and cultural study of 60 years of Bradbury's fiction. The authors draw upon correspondence with his publishers, agents and friends as well as archival manuscripts to examine the story of Bradbury's authorship over more than half a century. Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, 1975-1991 R. Reginald, Mary Wickizer Burgess, Daryl Furumi Mallett, 1992 Science fiction constitutes one of the largest and most widely read genres in literature and this reference provides bibliographical data on some 20,000 science fiction, fantasy and horror fiction books as well as nonfiction monographs about the literature. A companion to Reginald's Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature 1700-1974. Gale, 1979. The present volume is alphabetically arranged by approximately 10,000 author names. The entry for each individual work includes title, publisher, date and place published, number of pages, hardbound or paperback format and type of book, novel, anthology, etc. Where appropriate, entries also provide translation notes, series information, pseudonyms and remarks on special features such as celebrity introductions. Includes indexes of titles, series, awards and doubles for locating volumes containing two novels. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc, Portland, OR.

Great Themes of Science Fiction John J. Pierce, 1987 The most comprehensive work of its kind, Great Themes of Science Fiction looks at the most important elements of the genre and shows how each has evolved over time. Among the topics examined are aliens and alien worlds, supermen and adapted men, immortality and paranormal powers, robots and computers, space civilizations and colonies, wars on earth and in space, worldwide disasters, time travel and parallel worlds. Selected examples of each theme are discussed together with changes that have become apparent with shifts in popular attitudes and the increasing sophistication of readers. The impact and significance of each type of science fiction scenario is considered and the challenges it poses to human ingenuity, understanding and responsibility are discussed. The Magazine of Fantasy and Science Fiction Anthony Boucher, J. Francis McComas, 1966 Worlds Enough and Time Gary Westfahl, George Slusser, David A. Leiby, 2002-06-30 With our lives firmly controlled by the steady pace of time, humans have yearned for ways to escape its constraints and authors have responded with narratives about traveling far into the past or future, reversing the flow of time or creating alternate universes where Napoleon was triumphant at Waterloo or the South won the Civil War. Writers ranging from Dante and Lewis Carroll to Philip K. Dick and Martin Amis have probed into the workings of time and an overwhelming desire to master time reverberates throughout popular culture. This book considers how imaginative works involving time and time travel reflect ongoing scientific concerns and examine the human condition. The scope of the volume is unusually wide, covering such topics as Dante, the major novels of the 19th century and stories and films of the 1990s. The book concludes with a lengthy bibliography of short stories and novels, films and television programs and nonfiction works that feature time travel or speculations about time. With a roster of contributors that includes several of the field's major scholars this book offers many new insights into this fascinating subject America Noir David Cochran, 2016-06-21 In America Noir David Cochran details how ten writers and filmmakers challenged the social pieties prevalent during the Cold War such as the superiority of the American democracy the benevolence of free enterprise and the sanctity of the suburban family Rod Serling's The Twilight Zone featured victims of vast faceless bureaucratic powers Jim Thompson's noir thrillers such as The Grifters portrayed the ravages of capitalism on those at the bottom of the social ladder Patricia Highsmith in The Talented Mr Ripley placed an amoral con man in an international setting implicitly questioning America's fitness as leader of the free world Charles Willeford's pulp novels such as Wild Wives and Woman Chaser depicted the family as a hotbed of violence and chaos These artists pioneered a detached ironic sensibility that radically juxtaposed cultural references and blurred the distinctions between high and low art Their refusal to surrender to the pressures for political conformity and their unflinching portrayal of the underside of American life paved the way for the emergence of a 1960s counterculture that forever changed the way America views itself Paranoia, the Bomb, and 1950s Science Fiction Films Cynthia Hendershot, 1999 The various monsters that people 1950s sf giant insects prehistoric creatures mutants uncanny doubles to name a few serve as metaphorical embodiments of a varied and complex cultural paranoia BOOK JACKET Hendershot provides both theoretical discussion of paranoia and close readings of sf films in order to construct her argument elucidating the various metaphors used by these films to convey a paranoid view of a society forever altered by the atomic bomb BOOK JACKET The Best Science-fiction Stories and Novels, 1958 Best Science-fiction Stories Everett Franklin Bleiler, Thaddeus Eugene Dikty, 1958 Issues for 1955 include section Science fiction book index Analog Science Fact, Science Fiction, 1962 Anatomy of Wonder, Science Fiction Neil Barron, 1976 Circular Series A., 1955 Analog Science Fiction/science Fact John Wood Campbell (Jr.), 1969 Science Fiction, Fantasy & Horror, 1990 A comprehensive bibliography of books and short fiction published in the English language Litterair paspoort Adriaan Morriën, 1956
