Ecclesiastes Talbot Davis, 2023-06-27 Like a great song or piece of art Ecclesiastes speaks to the range of human experience and emotion reminds us we're not alone and proves that wisdom can be found even in the darkest of places What do you do when life hasn't worked out like you thought it would Why do pleasure and privilege the things we think should make us happy so often come up empty Does life have meaning or is it a random accident where contentment eludes us and we all meet the same fate Ecclesiastes is an unexpected piece of Scripture that asks these questions with beautiful brutal honesty and gives us permission to wrestle with our own existence without prescribing easy answers or requiring that we arrive at an approved conclusion Like a great song or piece of art Ecclesiastes speaks to the range of human experience and emotion reminds us we're not alone and proves that wisdom can be found even in the darkest of places Come Alive Ecclesiastes will help you navigate this poetic perplexing and profound book so you can See beyond your Western how to lens and approach Ecclesiastes like the work of art it is Stop asking What am I supposed to do and start asking How do I feel when reading Scripture Identify where Solomon's musings reflect distorted thinking and where they reveal truth about God Experience God as caring and empathetic even in our struggles The fact that God inspired a book written in the middle of depression and despair reveals His great love for us He is secure enough for our questions and compassionately meets us in our pain Ultimately Ecclesiastes leaves us with hope that there is a purpose to every season that life has meaning beyond our passions and attachments and that everything is made beautiful in its time The Girl's Own Annual, 1899
