The Ghosts of Africa William Stevenson, 2015-01-27 A sprawling epic saga of adventure romance war and resistance based on the savage conflict in East Africa during World War I In German occupied East Africa during World War I British forces have arrived In defiance of his orders German military commander Paul von Lettow enlists soldiers civilians and African rebels to fight against the British forming the first modern guerrilla uprising of the time Amid his political battles Lettow is embroiled in a romantic relationship with an American woman who loves him but who objects to his war To complicate things Lettow s actions draw the attention of the brilliant but brutal chief of British intelligence who plots to defeat him Amid all the action Zionists fight for influence in the region rival tribes have to be appeased with diplomacy and an African princess serves as a spy for the rebels Amazingly these colorful characters and eventful plots are firmly based on real life personas and historical events during the war In the gripping style of narrative fiction Stevenson relates the often overlooked German resistance in East Africa and their inventive use of guerrilla tactics As a former foreign correspondent in the region Stevenson paints an astonishingly accurate and detailed picture of the geography and political climate of East Africa A thrilling read The Ghosts of Africa packs history military tactics romance and adventure into a single epic tale that will both entertain and inform Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and medical thrillers comedy satire historical fiction romance erotic and love stories mystery classic literature folklore and mythology literary classics including Shakespeare Dumas Wilde Cather and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

The Ghosts of Africa William Stevenson, 1981      Ghosts of the African Diaspora Joanne Chassot, 2018-01-02

The first monograph to investigate the poetics and politics of haunting in African diaspora literature Ghosts of the African Diaspora Re Visioning History Memory and Identity examines literary works by five contemporary writers Fred D Aguiar Gloria Naylor Paule Marshall Michelle Cliff and Toni Morrison Joanne Chassot argues that reading these texts through the lens of the ghost does cultural theoretical and political work crucial to the writers engagement with issues of identity memory and history Drawing on memory and trauma studies postcolonial studies and queer theory this truly interdisciplinary volume makes an important contribution to the fast growing field of spectrality studies

The Routledge Handbook to the Ghost Story Scott Brewster, Luke Thurston, 2017-11-14 The Handbook to the Ghost Story sets out to survey and significantly extend a new field of criticism which has been taking shape over recent years centring on the ghost story and bringing together a vast range of interpretive methods and theoretical perspectives The main task of the volume is to properly situate the genre within historical and contemporary literary cultures across the globe and to explore its significance within wider literary contexts as well as those of the supernatural The Handbook offers the most significant contribution to this new critical field to date assembling some of its leading scholars to examine the key contexts and issues required for understanding the emergence and development of the ghost story African Novels: Premium Collection of ALL 12 Novels Edgar Wallace,2024-01-07 In African Novels Premium Collection of ALL 12 Novels Edgar Wallace weaves together the vibrant tapestry of African culture through narratives that blend adventure mystery and sociopolitical commentary Heralded for his fast paced and engaging writing style Wallace employs vivid imagery and intricate characterizations to bring forth the complexities of colonial and post colonial Africa Each story reflects the rich landscapes local customs and the often tumultuous encounters between indigenous peoples and Western influences allowing readers a glimpse into a world shaped by both historical and cultural forces Edgar Wallace was an influential British author and journalist whose career was marked by an unquenchable curiosity about the world around him His extensive travels throughout Africa inspired him to explore its narratives with depth and authenticity Known for his journalistic background Wallace s keen observations and immersive storytelling evoke the nuances of human experience a feature that defines his writing His ability to create thrilling plots while addressing societal themes marks him as a significant figure in early 20th century literature This collection is highly recommended for readers interested in adventure literature and the complexities of colonial encounters Wallace s novels serve not only as entertainment but also as thoughtful reflections on humanity making it a vital addition to any literary canon Whether you are a scholar student or a casual reader this anthology will enrich your understanding of African narratives and the genre as a whole In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works unifying features themes or stylistic evolutions A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era social currents cultural trends and key events that underpin their creation A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection tying the stories together while spotlighting the different work s strengths Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author s overarching message inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts Lastly our hand picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points serving as touchstones for the collection s central themes Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel ,2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable

event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid's laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here

Intertextuality in Contemporary African Literature Ode Ogede, 2011-09-16 Intellectual exchange among African creative writers is the subject of this highly innovative and wide ranging look at several forms of intertextuality on the continent Focusing on the issue of the availability of old canonical texts of African literature as a creative resource this study throws light on how African authors adapt reinterpret and redeploy existing texts in the formulation of new ones

Contemporary African writers are taking advantage of and extending the resources available in the existing native literary tradition But the field of inter ethnic trans national African literary inter textual studies is a novel one in itself as the theme of African writers debt to Euro American authors has been the critical commonplace in African literature Detailing the echoes and reverberations the voices of the past have generated and the distinctive uses to which the writers are putting one another's works the book demonstrates that the influence of local stock is significant it is pervasive and widespread and manifests itself in ways both random and systematic but it is a ubiquitous presence in the African literary imagination

Sleep with Ghosts G. F. Michelsen, 1992 The old Africa before the Europeans changed it beyond recognition was a place of beauty and sadness power and humor magic and allegory The new Africa is a place of corruption and poverty sickness and violence The two conflicting worlds collide in this brilliant literary debut as a professional seaman turned customs officer finds resolution in a return to the source of human strength the power to tell a story

Forest Imaginaries Ainehi

Edoro, 2026-01-20 Forests in fiction are often understood simply as settings symbols or remnants of a premodern past Yet many African novelists have turned to the forest to experiment with worldbuilding and to imagine new futures This groundbreaking book explores the life of the forest in African fiction showing how writers have used it to reinvent the novel's formal aesthetic and political possibilities Ainehi Edoro argues that forests in African fiction are laboratories for unmaking and remaking the world where writers break apart familiar forms to test alternate forms of life knowledge and power Instead of treating the forest as a backdrop these writers imagine it as a living structure a space where politics history myth violence technology the magical and creativity animate fictional worlds Spanning indigenous African narratives and contemporary science fiction Forest Imaginaries traces the lineage of forest worlds in African literature Chinua Achebe's evil forest the cosmic forest in Wole Soyinka's mythic imagination Thomas Mofolo's forest of imperial dreams Amos Tutuola's endless fractal forest and Nnedi Okorafor's aquatic forest of new ecological futures This book rethinks African literary history by showing how African writers draw on the forest and the wealth of Indigenous ideas about time space and storytelling it conjures to transform the novel's aesthetic political and philosophical horizons Beginnings According to the Legends and According to the True Story Allen Walton Gould, 1893 Book Review Digest, 2001 The Suicide Archive Doyle D.

Calhoun, 2024-09-13 Throughout the French empire from the Atlantic and the Caribbean to West and North Africa men women and children responded to enslavement colonization and oppression through acts of suicide In The Suicide Archive Doyle D Calhoun charts a long history of suicidal resistance to French colonialism and neocolonialism from the time of slavery to the Algerian War for Independence to the Arab Spring Noting that suicide was either obscured in or occluded from French colonial archives Calhoun turns to literature and film to show how aesthetic forms and narrative accounts can keep alive the silenced histories of suicide as a political language Drawing on scientific texts police files and legal proceedings alongside contemporary African and Afro Caribbean novels film and Senegalese oral history Calhoun outlines how such aesthetic works rewrite histories of resistance and loss Consequently Calhoun offers a new way of writing about suicide slavery and coloniality in relation to literary history Juju Fission Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi, 2007 Women especially leaders holding their own with men to address political impasses have been recognized as shrewd double headed or witchlike distinctions that link them with juju or extraordinary survivalist powers Juju Fission Women's Alternative Fictions from the Sahara the Kalahari and the Oases In Between is a theoretical and analytical book on African women writers that focuses on seven representative novels from different parts of Africa Bessie Head's Maru South Africa Botswana Nawal El Saadawi's Woman at Point Zero Egypt Ama Ata Aidoo's Our Sister Killjoy or Reflections from a Black Eyed Squint and Changes Ghana Assia Djebbar's A Sister to Scheherazade Algeria Calixthe Beyala's The Sun Hath Looked Upon Me Cameroon and Yvonne Vera's Nehanda Zimbabwe In her analysis Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi demonstrates how women are viewed and how they operate in critical times Ogunyemi explains how the heritage is passed on in spite of dire situations emanating from colonialism postcolonialism ethnocentrism sexism and grinding poverty An important contribution to many fields Juju Fission is excellent background material for courses on African studies women's studies African Diaspora studies black studies global studies and general literature studies Art and Ideology in the African Novel Emmanuel Ngara, 1985 The Book Buyer, 1890 A review and record of current literature World War I Aviation James Philip Noffsinger, 1997 This work contains annotated listings of books in French German and Italian as well as a greatly expanded section of books in English covering the period from 1914 to 1994 which includes privately printed books and limited editions The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1891 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art,
