The Gift Ii Dono A Feminist Analysis:

She Is Everywhere! Vol. 2 Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum, Annette Lyn Williams, Karen Nelson Villanueva, Ph. D. Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum, 2008 Splendid spiritual and subversive this anthology offers a sampler of just some of the feminisms emerging in academic seminars street demonstrations for justice and places where people are reclaiming their ancestral values She Is Everywhere Vol 2 is comprised of international essays poems and works of art from the growing community of women and men who recognize Her and feel Her call to expression in many forms This unique volume presents a fresh look at women in the Judeo Christian Bible in the Koran and in the kaleidoscopic beauty of the world s women from her signs in caves cliffs and forests to her many faces manifestations and hidden places Celebrate woman s spirituality her colors her islands and continents her rages and blessings in weather her silences and her surprising epiphanies She Is Everywhere Vol 2 leads the contemporary cultural and political nonviolent revolution for a radically democratic and harmonious world full of compassion equality and transformation Bianco in Questione Susan Petrilli, 2007 Women and Global Entrepreneurship Maura McAdam, James Cunningham, 2021-04-05 Entrepreneurship in context has been described as the third wave in entrepreneurship research Accordingly specific socio economic political market and institutional contexts are key to fostering enabling and enacting entrepreneurial activity and behaviours These contexts shape everyday entrepreneurship experiences This book is based on the premise that how gender is articulated within the entrepreneurial debate has to acknowledge context However context is not a construct that only applies to those economies and situations that differ from the presumed norm of Western developed nations Adopting a more critical appraisal of how context is positioned within current theorizing around gender and entrepreneurial behaviours offers potential to progress debate whilst acknowledging that competing and contrasting contextual influences require clearer recognition This book therefore has the potential to unearth credible and robust approaches to further examining contextualisation and women entrepreneurship that advances new insights By exploring and examining how contextual influences shape women s entrepreneurship this book challenges the assumption that women entrepreneurship is the same throughout the world It will be of value to researchers academics and students with an interest in entrepreneurship political economy economics and public policy Victoria Welby and the Science of Signs Susan Petrilli, 2015-01-31 Victoria Welby 1837 1912 dedicated her research to the relationship between signs and values She exchanged ideas with important exponents of the language and sign sciences such as Charles S Peirce and Charles S Ogden She examined themes she believed crucially important both in the use of signs and in reflection on signs But Welby s research can also be understood in ideal dialogue with authors she could never have met in real life such as Mikhail Bakhtin Susanne Langer and Genevieve Vaughan Welby contends that signifying cannot be constrained to any one system type of sign language field of discourse or area of experience On the contrary it is ever more developed enhanced and rigorous the more it develops across different fields disciplines and areas of experience For example to understand meaning

Welby evidences the advantage of translating it into another word even from the same language or resorting to metaphor to express what would otherwise be difficult to conceive Welby aims for full awareness of the expressive potential of signifying resources Her reflections make an important contribution to problems connected with communication expression interpretation translation and creativity

Women and the Gift Economy Genevieve Vaughan, 2007 Women and the Gift Economy A Radically Different Worldview is Possible is an attempt to respond to the need for deep and lasting social change in an epoch of dangerous crisis for all humans cultures and the planet Featuring articles by well known feminist activists and academics this book points to ways to re create the connections which have been severed between the gift economy women and the economies of Indigenous peoples and to bring forward the gift paradigm as an approach to liberate us from the worldview of the market that is destroying life on the planet Shifting to a gift paradigm can give us the radically different worldview which will make another better world possible

Women and Monastic Buddhism in Early South Asia Garima Kaushik, 2016-02-12 This book uses gender as a framework to offer unique insights into the socio cultural foundations of Buddhism Moving away from dominant discourses that discuss women as a single monolithic homogenous category thus rendering them invisible within the broader religious discourse this monograph examines their sustained role in the larger context of South Asian Buddhism and reaffirms their agency It highlights the multiple roles played by women as patrons practitioners lay and monastic members etc within Buddhism The volume also investigates the individual experiences of the members and their equations and relationships at different levels with the Samgha at large with their own respective Bhik u or Bhik un Sangha with the laity and with members of the same gender both lay and monastic It rereads reconfigures and reassesses historical data in order to arrive at a new understanding of Buddhism and the social matrix within which it developed and flourished Bringing together archaeological epigraphic art historical literary as well as ethnographic data this volume will be of interest to researchers and scholars of Buddhism gender studies ancient Indian history religion and South Asian studies

LGBTQ+ Family-Making, Reproductive Ethics, and the (Re)Shaping of Family Values Amanda Roth, 2025-12-29 This book examines the ethical issues surrounding assisted reproductive technologies and queer family making practices By focusing on LGBTQ people and experiences in relation to procreative ethics this book challenges dominant approaches and views in philosophical bioethics In Part 1 of this book the author introduces the idea of queer epistemic privilege regarding issues of family and reproduction and applies this notion to the bioethical debates around donor conception In Part 2 the author problematizes the typical philosophical conception of the debate over donor anonymity by centering queer perspectives and experiences Drawing on social science research she makes the case for queer difference in how donor conception is practiced and then employs this notion to show why the dominant ethical views opposing donor anonymity fail Whereas most scholars view this issue as an issue of pure procreative parental ethics this book instead employs a queer perspective to draw out an alternative framing of the conflict one between procreative parental ethics and the moral responsibility to resist unjust social systems and norms e g bionormativity This broader framing offers a limited defense of some uses of anonymous donor gametes that is tied directly to the nature of ongoing LGBTQ family marginalization Finally in Part 3 the author draws attention to two aspects of donor conception that are common in the queer community but receive virtually no attention in the bioethical literature known donation and donor sibling contact relationships and shows what we miss philosophically when these queer practices are erased from the bioethical discussions around donor conception LGBTQ Family Making Reproductive Ethics and the Re Shaping of Family Values is an essential resource for researchers or advanced students working in Moral Philosophy especially Reproductive Ethics Feminist Philosophy and LGBTQ Philosophy Bioethics and Gender Sexuality and Women s Studies Athanor ,2007
