The Girl With The Swansdown Seat:

The Girl with the Swansdown Seat Cyril Pearl, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1955 edition      The Idea of Prostitution Sheila Jeffreys, 1997 There are at least two competing views on prostitution prostitution as a legitimate and acceptable form of employment freely chosen by women and men s use of prostitution as a form of degrading the women and causing grave psychological damage In The Idea of Prostitution Sheila Jeffreys explores these sharply contrasting views

The Girl with the Swansdown Seat Cyril Pearl, 2009-07 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work      Dionysian Shaw Michel W. Pharand, 2004 Shaw now in its twenty fourth year publishes general articles on Shaw and his milieu reviews notes and the authoritative Continuing Checklist of Shaviana the bibliography of Shaw studies      The Girl with the Swansdown Seat , 1955      In Bed With Sherlock Holmes Christopher Redmond, 2002-10-02 In Bed with Sherlock Holmes provides a witty and well researched discussion of the sexual elements in the Sherlock Holmes stories and in Conan Doyle s own life An expert commentator on all things Victorian Doyle also reflects that period s attitudes toward sex and erotic love This commentary will make the Sherlock Holmes stories even more interesting and intriguing since Redmond uses published and unpublished articles books and letters as well as quotes from speeches given at meetings to enliven the text and give a broad out look to this unusual assessment of Doyle s best known stories Each chapter opens with one of the original Sidney Paget illustrations Bibliography Index      Women, Horse Sports and Liberation Erica Munkwitz, 2021-07-13 Shortlisted for the 2022 Lord Aberdare Literary Prize This book is the first full length scholarly examination of British women s involvement in equestrianism from the eighteenth through the twentieth centuries as well as the corresponding transformations of gender class sport and national identity in Britain and its Empire It argues that women s participation in horse sports transcended limitations of class and gender in Britain and highlights the democratic ethos that allowed anyone skilled enough to ride and hunt from chimney sweep to courtesan Furthermore women s involvement in equestrianism reshaped ideals of race and reinforced imperial ideology at the zenith of the British Empire Here British women abandoned the sidesaddle which they had been riding in for almost half a millennium to ride astride like men thus gaining complete equality on horseback Yet female equestrians did not seek further emancipation in the form of political rights This paradox of achieving equality through sport but not through politics shows how liberating sport was for women into the twentieth century It brings into question what emancipation meant in practice to women in Britain from the eighteenth through twentieth centuries This is fascinating reading for scholars of sports history women s history British history and imperial history as well as those interested in the broader social gendered and political histories of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and for all equestrian enthusiasts      Cumulative Paperback Index, 1939-1959 R. Reginald, 2009-12-01 This was the first bibliography and guide to the American mass market paperback book and it remains one of the most definitive The major index is by author and lists author title publisher book number year of publication and cover price The title index lists titles and authors only The publisher index provides a history of that imprint with addresses number ranges and general physical description of the books issued This is the place that all study of the American paperback must begin      Studia Anglistica Upsaliensia, 1963      The Spectator, 1891 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art      Elizabeth Gaskell's Mary Barton and Ruth Monica Correa Fryckstedt, 1982      Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world      Author - Title Catalog University of California, Berkeley. Library, 1963      A Victorian Feminist Christian Lisa Severine Nolland, 2004 Josephine Butler was an unlikely candidate for taking up the cause of prostitutes as she did with a fierce and self disregarding passion This book explores the particular mix of perspectives and experiences that came together to envision and empower her remarkable achievements It highlights the vital role of her spirituality and the tragic loss of her daughter      Victorian Institutional Patronage Selma Baroness Kanner, 1972      Black Victorians Manchester City Art Gallery, 2005 The black presence in Victorian art is greater than may be supposed Indeed the expanding art market in the nineteenth century was largely based on British prosperity resulting from imperial commerce and conquest It can therefore be said that Victorian art owes its existence to those who are relatively absent from its images Black Victorians brings together over 100 images depicting black figures to reveal the diversity of representation within nineteenth century visual culture and to foreground the forgotten presence of people of African descent in Victorian British art The range of images is broad from pictures of soldiers and sailors in Britain's armed forces and men and women in genre scenes to portraits of entertainers and political refugees and studies of artists models Notable individuals featured include actor Ira Aldridge Crimean heroine Mary Seacole the Queen's god daughter Sarah Bonetta Davies composer Samuel Coleridge Taylor and Abolitionist leader Frederick

Douglass In addition to the fine arts of painting drawing and sculpture the selection includes photography popular illustration caricature and ephemera which provide a cultural context for the portraits and subject pictures as well as presenting black figures as members of British society in everyday settings Many major artists of the period are represented including Dante Gabriel Rossetti William Holman Hunt Edward Burne Jones Julia Margaret Cameron Edgar Degas and J A M Whistler Many works are virtually unknown and collected here for the first time Presenting an important opportunity to see and assess how black figures have been portrayed in British art Black Victorians is an original and fascinating survey of a subject that has been given little coverage to date It is essential reading for anyone wishing to seek a fresh perspective on a well documented period of British history Book jacket Eugénie of the French Patrick Turnbull,1974 The Golden Age Ian Inkster,2000 In 1850 the Industrial Revolution came to an end In 1851 the Great Exhibition illustrated to the whole world the supremacy of industrial England For the next twenty years Britain reigned supreme From around 1870 Britain began to decline Britain is now a second rate power with strong memories of its former supremacy The above five sentences summarise a common view of the sequencing of Britain s rise and relative fall a stereotype that is challenged and modified in the essays of The Golden Age By concentrating on central aspects of social and industrial change authors expose the underpinnings of supremacy its unsung underside its tarnished gold Major themes cover industrial and technological change social institutions and gender relations in a period during which industry and industrialism were equally celebrated and nurtured Against this background it is difficult to argue for any sudden decline of energy assets or institution nor for any significant move from an industrial society to one in which a hearty manufacturing was replaced by commerce and land sensibility and artifice Manet's Bar at the Folies-Bergère and the Myths of Popular Illustration Novelene Ross,1982 The Publishers Weekly ,1972
