Bielo, Lieke Wijnia, 2021-01-14 This volume examines the ways in which biblical tourism is enmeshed within the production and management of heritage global contexts of marketing and publicity accessibility of sacred sites and routes for multiple audiences and the forging of connections between travel and social identity By exploring issues such as devotional piety religious pedagogy and entertainment an interdisciplinary collection of scholars traces how biblical tourism experiences are choreographed and consumed and how these practices shape embodied and narrative performances of scripture Contributors focus on four major questions How have people used tourism to develop new or renewed relationships with the Bible Historically what role has the Bible played in the development of modern tourism In the context of the tourist encounter how have people mobilized the Bible as a social and expressive resource And what forms of social exchange shape acts of biblical tourism such as among pilgrims or between people and landscapes These questions are centered not only around authorized shrines and Holy Places but also festivals museums theme parks and heritage sites This book aims to create a comparative and interdisciplinary dialogue around the dynamic relationship between biblical heritage claims and the practices and infrastructures of modern tourism The Progresses, Pageants, and Entertainments of Queen Elizabeth I Jayne Elisabeth Archer, Elizabeth Goldring, Sarah Knight, 2007-03-29 More than any other English monarch before or since Queen Elizabeth I used her annual progresses to shape her royal persona and to bolster her popularity and authority During the spring and summer accompanied by her court Elizabeth toured southern England the Midlands and parts of the West Country staying with private and civic hosts and at the universities of Oxford and Cambridge The progresses provided hosts with unique opportunities to impress and influence the Queen and became occasions for magnificent and ingenious entertainments and pageants drawing on the skills of architects artists and craftsmen as well as dramatic performances formal orations poetic recitations parades masques dances and bear baiting The Progresses Pageants and Entertainments of Queen Elizabeth I is an interdisciplinary essay collection

Wimbush,2012-09-01 Perhaps no other group of people has been as much formed by biblical texts and tropes as African Americans From literature and the arts to popular culture and everyday life the Bible courses through black society and culture like blood through veins Despite the enormous recent interest in African American religion relatively little attention has been paid to the diversity of ways in which African Americans have utilized the Bible African Americans and the Bible is the fruit of a four year collaborative research project directed by Vincent L Wimbush and funded by the Lilly Endowment It brings together scholars and experts sixty eight in all from a wide range of academic and artistic fields and disciplines including ethnography cultural history and biblical studies as well as art music film dance drama and literature The focus is on the interaction between the people known as African Americans and that complex of visions rhetorics and ideologies known as the Bible As such the book is less about the meaning s of the Bible than about the Bible and meaning s less about the world s of the Bible than about how worlds and the Bible interact in short about how a text constructs a people and a people constructs a text It is about a particular sociocultural formation but also about the dynamics that obtain in the interrelation between any group of people and sacred texts in general Thus African Americans and the Bible provides an exemplum of sociocultural formation and a critical lens through which the process of sociocultural formation can be viewed Bible Society Record ,1960 The Friend Samuel Chenery Damon,1936 English Pageantry Robert Withington,1963 A History of Latter-Day Saint Pageantry from 1847 to 1947 Maurine Howell Reintjes,1950 Women and Missions Lucia P.
