W. F. Harvey

The Beast With Five Fingers:

The Beast with Five Fingers W. F. Harvey, 2021-11-09 In The Beast with Five Fingers W F Harvey masterfully explores the intersection of the supernatural and the psychological through a narrative that balances horror with dark humor. The novella presents a gripping tale of an unhinged finger that after the death of its owner continues to haunt the lives of those who come into contact with it. Harvey's style is characterized by rich atmospheric prose that vividly depicts the eerie settings and introspective character studies, thus situating this work within the early 20th century gothic tradition yet it also reflects the burgeoning fascination with psychological horror emerging in literature during this period. W F Harvey was an English author known for his unique contributions to the horror genre often drawing inspiration from his broader experiences as a teacher and a poet. His keen insights into human psychology and a deep appreciation for the macabre are evident in this work which reveals not only his literary prowess but also a personal exploration of fear and the unknown. Such themes likely resonate with his own interest in the human condition and the fragility of sanity. Readers with an affinity for gothic literature and psychological horror will find The Beast with Five Fingers an indispensable addition to their library. Harvey's ability to intertwine the grotesque with the profound invites readers into a chilling examination of mortality and obsession. This work stands as a testament to his enduring legacy in the genre and makes for a compelling thought-provoking read.

The Beast with Five Fingers William Fryer Harvey, 1941 Fearing the Dark Edmund G. Bansak, 2003-10-23 Cat People 1942 and I Walked with a Zombie 1943 established Val Lewton's hauntingly graceful style where suggestion was often used in place of explicit violence. His stylish B thrillers were imitated by a generation of filmmakers such as Richard Wallace, William Castle and even Walt Disney in his animated Adventures of Ichabod and Mr Toad 1949. Through interviews with many of Lewton's associates including his wife and son and extensive research his life and output are thoroughly examined.

Eustace stared at it in utter amazement. It was moving quickly in the manner of a geometer caterpillar the fingers humped up one moment flattened out the next the thumb appeared to give a crablike motion all the while. While he was looking too surprised to stir the hand disappeared round the corner. Terror lurks where you least expect it. This is a collection of hair raising horror stories that are bound to make your flesh creep written by the undisputed masters of the genre. Selected and compiled by Ruskin Bond these are stories by Rudyard Kipling, W F Harvey, Marjorie Bowen and Thomas Burke among others. From a ghostly animated hand and the walking dead to haunted cemeteries and dressing tables these tales will send a chill down your spine. Featuring phantoms, beasts and monsters. The Beast with
