The Best Of Resurgence A Selection Of The First Twentyfive Years:

Making Another World Possible Peter Ryley,2013-07-18 Making Another World Possible identifies the British contribution to the genealogy of modern green and anti capitalist thinking by examining left libertarian ideologies in the late 19th and early 20th century Britain and highlighting their influence on present day radical thought As capitalism heralded the triumph of technology greater production and a new urban industrial society some imagined alternatives to this notion of progress based on endless economic growth The book examines the development of ideas from these dissidents who included communists class warriors free thinkers secularists and Christian communitarians All shared the same beliefs that the benefits of industrialism could only be realized through equality and that urban culture depended on a healthy agriculture and harmony with the natural world concerns that are still of great importance today This distinctive history of anarchist ideas reappraises the work of thinkers and revises the historical picture of the radical milieu in 19th and 20th century Britain It will be an essential resource to anyone researching the history of ideas and studying anarchism Resurgence ,1992

The Best of Resurgence John Button,1991 The Life and Death of Petra Kelly Sara Parkin,1994 Her extraordinary political passion combined with lobbying skills and international contacts ensured that she immediately shot to prominence within the emerging green and peace movements Petra met Gert Bastian in the early eighties Bastian was a NATO general a war veteran who rocked the German establishment by joining protests against US nuclear weapons in Germany then joined the Greens and fell in love with Petra Kelly International Books in Print ,1997 ECOS ,1992

The Cumulative Book Index ,1992 A world list of books in the English language Force Majeure and Hardship Under General Contract Principles Christoph Brunner,2009-01-01 Lawyers involved in international commercial transactions know well that unforeseen events affecting the performance of a party often arise Not surprisingly exemptions for non performance are dealt with in a significant number of arbitral awards This very useful book thoroughly analyzes contemporary approaches particularly as manifested in case law to the scope and content of the principles of exemption for non performance which are commonly referred to as force majeure and hardship The author shows that the general principles of law approach addresses this concern most effectively Generally accepted and understood by the business world at large this approach encompasses principles of international commercial contracts derived from a variety of legal systems It s most important restatements are found in the 1980 United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods CISG and the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts UPIICC Establishing specific standards and case groups for the exemptions under review the analysis treats such recurring elements as the following contractual risk allocations unforeseeability of an impediment impediments beyond the typical sphere of risk and control of the obligor responsibility for third parties subcontractors suppliers legal impediments acts of public authority and effect of mandatory rules involvement of states or state enterprises interpretation of force majeure and hardship clauses hardship threshold test frustration of purpose irreconcilable differences comparison with exemptions under domestic legal systems impossibility of performance frustration of contract impracticability The book is a major contribution to the development of the use of general principles of law in international commercial arbitration It may be used as a comprehensive commentary on the force majeure and hardship provisions of the UPIICC as well as on Art 79 of the CISG In addition as an insightful investigation into the fundamental question of the limits of the principle of sanctity of contracts this book is sure to capture the attention of business lawyers and interested academics everywhere Books in Print ,1994 Earthographies Wendy Wheeler,Hugh Dunkerley,2008
