The Family Legal Advisor:

The Army Lawyer, 2003      The Family Legal Advisor, 1981      Australian Master Family Law Guide, 2009 Chapters have been updated and include Commonwealth states family law legislation and courts by John Fogarty Legal practice matters client interview and drafting affidavits by Genevieve Dee Divorce by Louise Hennessy Shared parental responsibility by Anne Marie Rice Dispute resolution and family relationship centres by Anne Marie Rice Parenting orders plans and guidelines by Anne Marie Rice Principles the court must consider when conducting child related proceedings by Karen Williams Major long term issues by Anne Marie Rice Child abduction by Anne Marie Rice Order enforcement and non compliance in children s cases by William Keough Children and relationship factors by Renata Alexander Property and the four step process by Jacqueline Campbell and Grant T Riethmuller Maintenance by Jacqueline Campbell Bankruptcy and third parties by Stephen Mullette Corporations and trusts by Louise Hennessy Taxation considerations Property orders by Chris Othen Su      Feminist Perspectives on Contract Law Linda Mulcahy, Sally Wheeler, 2017-01-27 The law of contract is ripe for feminist analysis Despite increasing calls for the re conceptualisation of neo classical ways of thinking feminist perspectives on contract tend to be marginalised in mainstream textbooks This edited collection questions the assumptions made in such works and the ideologies that underpin them drawing attention to the ways in which the law of contract has facilitated the virtual exclusion of women the feminine and the private sphere from legal discourse Contributors to this volume offer a range of ways of thinking about the subject and cover topics such as the feminine offeree feminist perspectives on contracts in cyberspace the forgotten world of women and contracts restitution and feminist economic theory the gendered power dynamics of undue influence and the feminisation of dispute resolution      Family Law Polly Morgan, 2021 Enriched with examples and carefully constructed scenarios Family Law offers students a helpful framework on which they can hang principles academic analysis and critical discussion      Access to Justice in Rural Communities Daniel Newman, Faith Gordon, 2023-05-04 This book offers insight on access to justice from rural areas in internationally comparable contexts to highlight the diversity of experiences within and across rural areas globally It looks at the fundamental questions for people s lives raised by the issue of access to justice as well as the rule of law It highlights a range of social geographic and cultural issues which impact the way rural communities experience the justice system throughout the world with chapters on Australia Canada England Ireland Kenya Northern Ireland South Africa Syria Turkey the USA and Wales Each chapter explores three questions 1 How do people experience the institutions of justice in rural areas and how does this rural experience differ to an urban experience 2 What impact have changes in policy had on the justice system in rural areas and have rural and urban areas been affected in different ways 3 What impact does the law have on people s lives in rural areas and what would rural communities like to be better understood about their experience of the justice system By bringing in the voices and experiences of those who are often ignored or side lined by justice systems this book will set out an agenda for ensuring social justice in legal systems with a focus on protecting marginalised groups      Cases Decided in the Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, and House of Lords Scotland. Court of Session, 1878 Vols for 1847 48 1872 73 include cases decided in the Teind Court 1847 48 1858 59 include cases decided in the Court of Exchequer 1850 51 included cases decided in the House of Lords 1873 74 include cases decided in the Court of Justiciary      After the Act Mavis Maclean, John Eekelaar, 2019-04-18 After the Act describes the aftermath of the recent removal under LASPO of public funding from legal services in family matters other than in defined cases such as child protection and domestic abuse Through analysis of the policy context interviews with key players observation of services provided by lawyers students lay support workers and the advice sector the authors outline the work being done and the skills being used in a range of settings The book raises questions not only about access to family justice but about the role of law in family matters in an increasingly post legal society Fragmentation of the market in the new services offering information initial advice online or alternative dispute resolution but rarely ongoing casework raises questions about where costs fall and how quality can be assured Many of these services are forms of private ordering where outcomes are hard to assess If neither the state nor the individual can afford full legal services where the best interests of any child involved are of paramount importance and lawyers negotiate to make best use of the resources available perhaps it is time to consider using lawyers differently with lay support to solve problems before they become disputes      Orange Coast Magazine , 2008-04 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County's most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design Each issue features an award winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles service journalism and authoritative articles on dining fashion home design and travel As Orange County's only paid subscription lifestyle magazine with circulation figures guaranteed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation Orange Coast is the definitive guidebook into the county's luxe lifestyle
