The Films Of The Twenties:

The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov James Steffen, 2013-10-31 Sergei Parajanov 1924-90 flouted the rules of both filmmaking and society in the Soviet Union and paid a heavy personal price. An ethnic Armenian in the multicultural atmosphere of Tbilisi, Georgia, he was one of the most innovative directors of postwar Soviet cinema. Parajanov succeeded in creating a small but marvelous body of work whose style embraces such diverse influences as folk art, medieval miniature painting, early cinema, Russian and European art films, surrealism, and Armenian, Georgian, and Ukrainian cultural motifs. The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov is the first English language book on the director's films and the most comprehensive study of his work. James Steffen provides a detailed overview of Parajanov's artistic career, his identity as an Armenian in Georgia, and its impact on his aesthetics; his early films in Ukraine; his international breakthrough in 1964 with Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors; his challenging 1969 masterpiece The Color of Pomegranates, which was reedited against his wishes; his unrealized projects in the 1970s; and his eventual return to international prominence in the mid to late 1980s with The Legend of the Surami Fortress and Ashik Kerib. Steffen also provides a rare behind-the-scenes view of the Soviet film censorship process and tells the dramatic story of Parajanov's conflicts with the authorities, culminating in his 1973-77 arrest and imprisonment on charges related to homosexuality. Ultimately, the figure of Parajanov offers a fascinating case study in the complicated dynamics of power, nationality, politics, ethnicity, sexuality, and culture in the republics of the former Soviet Union. Outstanding Academic Title, Choice Magazine.

Remapping Brazilian Film Culture in the Twenty-First Century Stephanie Dennison, 2019-10-25 Remapping Brazilian Film Culture makes a significant contribution not only to debates about Brazilian national cinema but more generally about the development of world cinema in the twenty-first century. This book charts the key features of Brazilian film culture of the first two decades of the twenty-first century, including the latest cultural debates within Brazil on film funding and distribution practices, the impact of diversity politics on the Brazilian film industry, the reception and circulation of Brazilian films on the international film festival circuit, and the impact on cultural production of the sharp change in political direction at national level experienced post-2016. The principle of remapping here is based on a need to move on from potentially limiting concepts such as the national, which can serve to unduly ghettoise a cinema, film industry, and audience. The book argues that Brazilian film culture should be read as being part of a globally articulated film culture whose internal workings are necessarily distinctive and thus deserving of world cinema scholars' attention. A blend of industry studies, audience reception, and cultural studies, Remapping Brazilian Film Culture is a dynamic volume for students and researchers in film studies, particularly Brazilian, Latin American, and world cinema. Honorary Mention, Best Book in Humanities for the LASA Brazil Prize 2021.

Movies of the Twenties Jürgen Müller, 2007 The birth of cinema. From the invention of the moving picture to the first sound movies.
