Sunshine Always Alice Gossage, 2006 With intelligence and growing passion Alice Bower of Vermillion and Joseph Gossage of Rapid City corresponded with each other during their 16 month long courtship Though they did not meet in person until late 1881 29 year old Gossage publisher of a small newspaper had been introduced to 20 year old Bower an experienced typesetter several years earlier by a mutual acquaintance who had encouraged him to hire her to set type for his new Black Hills Weekly Journal Their letters and Bower s journal offer a window not only on their hearts but also on that particular time and place on the Dakota frontier Bower and Gossage's correspondence reminds us of a time when the newspaper office was the dynamic center of community life Modern day readers will enjoy fascinating glimpses not only into the settling of eastern and western Dakota Territory fraught with floods and economic cycles of boom and bust but also into a middle class Victorian courtship in which exchanging letters and photographs was an indication of serious interest and discussing temperance and the intention not to become parents reflected the earnest spirit of the times United States
