(1849-1914),1892 Negroes and the Gun Nicholas Johnson,2014-01-14 Chronicling the underappreciated black tradition of bearing arms for self defense this book presents an array of examples reaching back to the pre Civil War era that demonstrate a willingness of African American men and women to use firearms when necessary to defend their families and communities From Frederick Douglass s advice to keep a good revolver handy as defense against slave catchers to the armed self protection of Monroe North Carolina blacks against the KKK chronicled in Robert Williams s Negroes with Guns it is clear that owning firearms was commonplace in the black community Nicholas Johnson points out that this story has been submerged because it is hard to reconcile with the dominant narrative of nonviolence during the civil rights era His book however resolves that tension by showing how the black tradition of arms maintained and demanded a critical distinction between private self defense and political violence Johnson also addresses the unavoidable issue of young black men with guns and the toll that gun violence takes on many in the inner city He shows how complicated this issue is by highlighting the surprising diversity of views on gun ownership in the black community In fact recent Supreme Court affirmations of the right to bear arms resulted from cases led by black plaintiffs Surprising and informative this well researched book strips away many stock assumptions of conventional wisdom on the issue of guns and the black freedom struggle American Slaves and African Masters C. Sears,2012-09-06 Whether by falling prey to Algerian corsairs or crashing onto the desert shores of Western Sahara a handful of Americans in the first years of the Republic found themselves enslaved in a system that differed so markedly from nineteenth century U S slavery that some contemporaries and modern scholars hesitate to categorize their experiences as slavery Sears uses a comparative approach placing African enslavement of Americans and Europeans in the context of Mediterranean and Ottoman slaveries while individually investigating the system of slavery in Algiers and Western Sahara This work illuminates the commonalities and peculiarities of these slaveries while contributing to a growing body of literature that showcases the flexibility of slavery as an institution The Green Bag ,1898 Includes index 1 v Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1883 A History of Rome Henry George Liddell,1872 Journal of the Society of Arts ,1883 House documents ,1880 The Politics of Aristotle Aristotle,Benjamin Jowett,1885 The Canadian Magazine ,1895 The Expositor's Bible ,1893
