Slave School:

The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures Archie L. Dick,2012-01-01 The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures shows how the common practice of reading can illuminate the social and political history of a culture. This ground breaking study reveals resistance strategies in the reading and writing practices of South Africans strategies that have been hidden until now for political reasons relating to the country's liberation struggles. By looking to records from a slave lodge women's associations army education units universities courts libraries prison departments and political groups Archie Dick exposes the key works of fiction and non fiction magazines and newspapers that were read and discussed by political activists and prisoners. Uncovering the book and library schemes that elites used to regulate reading Dick exposes incidences of intellectual fraud book theft censorship and book burning. Through this innovative methodology Dick aptly shows how South African readers used reading and books to resist unjust regimes and build community across South Africa's class and racial barriers

Tales from Vespucci Jon Huer,2025-08-15 Our hero Michael Brown earlier seen in The Green Palmers Chronicle as a young boy and in Darwin's Progress as a grown up man now retired travels with guide and friend Isaiah through the Land of Vespucci which invites travelers through its many provinces each of which showcases different cultures and thoughts some are bizarre some adventurous some inspiring but all of them are always thought provoking. Throughout his travel across 30 or so provinces which produce these tales from Vespucci Michael learns about humanity his own as much as the Vespuccians themselves which the author shares with the readers as a cautionary tale in this uniquely original and unforgettable collection of stories reminiscent of classic Guliver's Travels

Periodical Accounts Relating to the Missions of the Church of the United Brethren Established Among the Heathen ,1834 Modern Schooling and Trajectories of Exclusion Divya Kannan,R. Maithreyi,2023-10-10 A timely enquiry into the disjuncture between schooling and society this book aims to examine the specific spatialities and temporalities of modern schooling through which non normative childhoods are constructed as the provincial other. A large body of critical scholarship has engaged with the ways in which modern schooling draws upon certain situated normative ideals of child development and is uneasy in its attempts to accommodate childhoods that are situated outside of this normative framework. The COVID 19 pandemic in fact was a further reminder of how schooling in its current form is limited in its abilities to address childhoods that spatio temporally disrupt the assumptions of the normal and stable. Together the authors of this edited volume examine the ways in which modern schooling excludes despite set policies for inclusion and how provincialized children respond to this. Cutting across a range of disciplines from history and anthropology to sociology and childhood studies statistics and demography and a range of research methodologies from archival to ethnographic the chapters draw upon these various disciplines in unpacking the structures of modern schooling. Modern Schooling and Trajectories of Exclusion will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of education sociology research methods childhood studies and social sciences The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Children's Geographies Transitions in American Education Donald Parkerson, Jo Ann Pakerson, 2014-03-05 This book is a concise social history of teaching from the colonial period to the present. By revealing the words of teachers themselves it brings their stories to life. Synthesizing decades of research on teaching it places important topics such as discipline in the classroom, technology and cultural diversity within historical perspective History of the Negro Race in America from 1619 to 1880 George Washington Williams, 1882 History of the Negro Race in America George Washington Williams, 1882 English Linguistic Imperialism from Below Leya Mathew, 2022-07-11 Imperialism may be over but the political economic and cultural subjugation of social life through English has only intensified. This book demonstrates how English has been newly constituted as a dominant language in post market reform India through the fervent aspirations of non elites and the zealous reforms of English Language Teaching experts. The most recent spread of English in India has been through low fee private schools which are perceived as dubious yet efficient. The book is an ethnography of mothering at one such low fee private school and its neighboring state funded school. It demonstrates that political economic transitions experienced as radical social mobility fuelled intense desire for English schooling. Rather than English schooling leading to social mobility new experiences of mobility necessitated English schooling. At the same time experts have responded to the unanticipated spread of English by transforming it from a second language to a first language and earlier hierarchies have been produced anew as access to English democratized

The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions Patrick Taylor, Frederick I. Case, 2013-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions is the definitive reference for Caribbean religious phenomena from a Caribbean perspective. Generously illustrated this landmark project combines the breadth of a comparative approach to religion with the depth of understanding of Caribbean spirituality as an ever changing and varied historical phenomenon. Organized alphabetically entries examine how Caribbean religious experiences have been shaped by and have responded to the processes of colonialism and the challenges of the postcolonial world. Systematically organized by theme and area the encyclopedia considers religious traditions such as Vodou, Rastafari, Sunni Islam, Sanatan Dharma, Judaism and the Roman Catholic and Seventh day Adventist churches. Detailed subentries present topics such as religious rituals, beliefs, practices, specific historical developments, geographical differences and gender roles within major traditions. Also included are entries that address the religious dimensions of geographical territories that make up the Caribbean. Representing the culmination of more than a decade of work by the associates of the Caribbean Religions Project, The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions will foster a greater understanding of the role of religion in Caribbean life and society in the Caribbean diaspora and in wider national and transnational spaces Master-missionaries Alexander Hay Japp, 1880 The Inter Ocean Curiosity Shop ..., 1892 Transforming Education Noleen Van Wyk, Eleanor M.
