HUMANISTIC SOCIAL WORK - The THIRD WAY / FORCE in Theory, Practice and Politics. Core Qualities, Skills and Conducts of the Practitioner ,2023-11-10 This book is a new appearance of the author Petru Stefăroi within The HUMANISTIC SOCIAL WORK Project In particular in this work the author affirms and supports the thesis according to which as in psychology and psychotherapy the idea thesis and formula Humanistic Psychology Psychotherapy as the Third Way or Force is regularly promoted and used it is the case and the time as in the field of social work to operate with the formula Humanistic Social Work The Third Way or Force in Social Work The third way in practice as a method and the third force in theory as a doctrine If in psychology and psychotherapy the third way force was established by reference to psychoanalysis and behaviorism in social work the third way is established by reference to Traditional social work and Critical social work This third way in social work is imposed in the author s opinion by prioritizing the concept of personality bringing this doctrine method and practice of social work closer to psychology and psychotherapy to humanistic psychology and psychotherapy But the author specifies in the paper that humanistic psychology and humanistic psychotherapy on the one hand and humanistic social work as theory and practice on the other hand are distinct scientific and practical fields not only by the object of intervention but also by methodology and specifics of practice The aspect is well highlighted in the way it is structured and formulated his The HUMANISTIC SOCIAL WORK Project established as an initiative with the assumed aim to enhance the effective presence of the humanistic and personalistic values theories and practices in social work which usually are stated as fundamental and essential in different programs strategies and policies but less present in fact in the specialized literature in the faculties curricula or in the practice of the professionals and services To this end the project is designed as a philosophical theoretical axiological and methodological framework a heuristic laboratory a philosophical scientific and professional forum where it can be set what might be called the theory axiology and methodology of humanistic social work. The project's concept starts from the idea that humanistic social work is not however a distinctive form of social work welfare but rather an ontology epistemology that generates a reaffirmation restatement of the fundamental constitutional humanistic values of social work incorporating in the same time in a relative new coherent and unitary theory all what penetrated in social work in the last decades from humanistic psychology and psychotherapy microsociology and humanistic sociology human rights philosophy movement and especially what was established as humanistic method in the contemporary social work practice and literature. The core aspect of the humanistic social work paradigm theory and practice is determined by the way mode humanistic are represented the client and professional considering the human equalities resources of the client and professional the critical epistemological and methodological value of the this type of social work. One can say that the specific theory of humanistic social work is a conglomerate of theories paradigms orientations but which have some crucial ideas as vectors the person client as personality as human being with sentiments soul desires sufferings needs of love needs of happiness and accomplishments emphasis on personality and compathetical micro community as basic resources of practice positive optimistic and appreciative expectation in practice person centered and microcommunity centered approach in evaluation and intervention concentration on the future and not on the past the human rights social justice a humanistic perspective on the practitioner and his conducts in practice The Skills of Helping Individuals, Families, Groups, and Communities + Mindtap Social Work, 6-month Access, Social Work Treatment Francis J.

Turner, 2011-03-15 First published in 1974 Social Work Treatment remains the most popular and trusted compendium of theories available to social work students and practitioners. It explores the full range of theoretical approaches that drive social work treatment and knowledge development from psychoanalysis to crisis intervention. This treasure trove of practice knowledge equips professionals with a broad array of theoretical approaches each of which shine a spotlight on a different aspect of the human condition. Emphasizing the importance of a broad based theoretical approach to practice it helps the reader avoid the pitfalls of becoming overly identified with a narrow focus that limits their understanding of clients and their contexts. This sweeping overview of the field untangles the increasingly complex problems ideologies and value sets that define contemporary social work practice. The result is an essential A to Z reference that charts the full range of theoretical approaches available to social workers regardless of their setting or specialty Foundations of Social Work Practice in the Field of Aging Roberta Rubin Greene, 2007 The aging of societies is a global phenomenon. In the United States alone the life expectancy for both men and women will continue to increase over the next few decades and with that a population explosion of older adults. The dramatic increase in the number and diversity of older adults elevates the visibility of gerontological matters. As a result social work practice is becoming more multigenerational thereby demanding social workers regardless of their professional endeavors to be equipped with the most innovative theories and practices to serve older adults and their families This comprehensive text spans the new knowledge and skills required in direct practice areas group work and macro practice It also outlines the Geriatric Social Work Competencies as developed by social work educators necessary to serve the older adult population and suggests how these competencies can be integrated into foundation curriculum Social work educators students practitioners administrators and policymakers will find updated useful information in this text regarding assessment tools cultural influences evidence based practices intervention techniques theoretical examples Individuals are living longer and healthier lives in part because of the extraordinary growth of biomedical knowledge and public health initiatives The confluence of the rapid and large increase of the older population and the exponential increase in the dissemination of knowledge create an imperative for social workers to employ the most recent knowledge in their practice with people living increasingly long lives JoAnn Damron Rodriguez Department of Social Welfare University of California Los Angeles The Skills of Helping Individuals, Families, Groups, and Communities + Mindtap Social Work, 1 Term 6 Months Access Card for Cournoyer's the Social Work Skills Workbook, 8th Ed., 2016 Endings in Clinical Practice Joseph F.
