Slaughter At Broken Bow:

Slaughter at Broken Bow Gordon D. Shirreffs, 1963      Hard to Kill Wesley Hall, 2001-03 Hard to Kill is a Western set in the Wind River Country of Wyoming during the decade before statehood. It is based upon a brief period in the life of John Wesley Hardin, one of the West's most famous gunslingers. Suffering from amnesia, Hardin wakes up in an alley with a hole in his head and just in time is rescued from certain death by a girl who is herself being chased by a mob on horseback. In time, going by the name of Slim, he learns but keeps to himself that he is very much at home with handguns and since a bloody range war is in progress and his pretty rescuer is in serious trouble, he resolves to do what he can to stop Bowker, the man who is responsible for starting the war. Slim falls in love with the girl and asks her to marry him as soon as he finds out who he is. This occurs at the end of the story when the infamous Bill Longley, another professional gunslinger brought in by Bowker, refuses to draw against Slim. In front of hundreds of spectators, Longley reveals that the man before him is none other than John Wesley Hardin.

Mari Sandoz came out of the Sandhills of Nebraska to write at least three enduring books: Old Jules, Cheyenne Autumn, and Crazy Horse. She was a tireless researcher, a true storyteller, an artist passionately dedicated to a place little known and a people largely misunderstood. Blasted by some critics, revered by others for her vivid detail and depth of feeling, Sandoz has achieved a secure place in American literature. Her letters, edited by Helen Winter Stauffer, reveal extraordinary courage and zest for life. Included here are letters written by Sandoz over nearly forty years, from 1928, the year of her father's death and a critical one for her creative development, to 1966, the year of her own death. They allow memorable glimpses of the professional and private person, her struggles to learn her craft in spite of an unsupportive family and hard won formal education, her experiences in gathering material, her relationships with editors and publishers, her work with fledgling writers, and her commitment to art and to various social concerns.

A cabal of senior Russian officers led by the charismatic and brilliant general Uri Saratov engineer a plot designed to put the Red Army back in control of the Kremlin as well as one guaranteeing that the Russians will never again have to worry about a military face off with the United States. Saratov and his comrades plan to lull the U.S. into nuclear arms reductions so severe that in time America will not be able to effectively respond to a Russian nuclear threat. Simultaneously, knowing U.S. customs agents are severely short staffed, they plan to smuggle more than sixty thermonuclear weapons disguised as industrial boilers in ordinary shipping crates into the American heartland. Dr. George Duval, a country physician fresh out of med school, traveling on a desolate stretch of Nebraska highway, witnesses a fatal truck accident and gets a good look at the victims and their mysterious cargo.

When Duval returns to the scene with the local sheriff there is no longer any sign of an accident and he soon becomes convinced he has stumbled on to a broken arrow nuclear incident the Feds want covered up International tensions over recent Russian activity build as Duval believing the worst about his own government recruits the help of his friend a local investigative reporter to put the deadly puzzle together before it s too late BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1964 Whist ,1898 Lyrics of ancient Palestine, illustr. of Old Testament history Religious tract society,1873 The Mahabharata ,1889 The Mahabharata of Krishna-Dwaipayana Vyasa: Karna parvas ,1889 The Mahabharata of Krishna-Dwaipayana Vyasa Translated Into English Prose: Karna parva (1889).
