Slavic Structuralism Endre Bojtár, 1985-01-01 This work examines Czech Structuralism from the mid nineteen twenties until 1948 J Mukarovsk R Jakobson F Vodicka R Wellek etc the Polish so called Integral School lasting from about 1930 until 1945 M Kridl K Budzyk F Siedlicki D Hopensztand S Zlkiewski as well as R Ingarden's views on literary criticism i.e. that system of literary theory which together with Russian Formalism was termed Slavic Structuralism. The whole period is examined in developmental chronology. Despite this the goal is not a history of science but to throw light on the system of literary criticism which Slavic Structuralism has bequeathed to us and to show to what extent and how it can be of use to us.

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline. As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it. I.R. Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field. Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid, concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years. Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume. Their work is organized into three parts. In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose. The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address. Part II focuses on individual theorists. It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I. This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context. Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory. It identifies significant complex terms, places them in context and explains their origins and use. Accessibility is a key feature of the work. By avoiding jargon, providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout, Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture.

Bakhtin in Contexts Amy Mandelker, 1995-11-22 The Russian critic M.M. Bakhtin has recently become a major figure in contemporary theory beyond his traditional influence in Slavic literary studies. Bakhtin in Contexts explores the revolutionary impact Bakhtin's ideas have carried in contemporary discussion of language, art, culture and social science in recent years. The contributors represent a broad range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences epitomizing the views of Russian and American specialists in those fields. Bakhtin often referred to as the human sciences. The diversity of perspective and flexibility of approach make this a unique contribution to Bakhtin studies and to the ongoing dialogue between Western and Russian theorists.
