WHY HUMAN COMMUNICATION IS DIFFERENT, AND HOW LANGUAGE
EVOLVED TO MAKE IT SPECIAL

Speaking Our Minds Hc:

Speaking Our Minds Thom Scott-Phillips, 2014-11-03 Language is an essential part of what makes us human. Where did it come from? How did it develop into the complex system we know today? And what can an evolutionary perspective tell us about the nature of language and communication? Drawing on a range of disciplines including cognitive science, linguistics, anthropology and evolutionary biology, Speaking Our Minds explains how language evolved and why we are the only species to communicate in this way. Written by a rising star in the field, this groundbreaking book is required reading for anyone interested in understanding the origins and evolution of human communication and language.

Highlander John M. Glen, 2021-10-21 and racial justice during a critical era in southern and Appalachian history. This volume is the first comprehensive examination of that extraordinary and often controversial institution. Founded in 1932 by Myles Horton and Don West near Monteagle, Tennessee, this adult education center was both a vital resource for southern radicals and a catalyst for several major movements for social change. During its thirty year history it served as a community folk school, as a training center for southern labor and Farmers Union members, and as a meeting place for black and white civil rights activists. As a result of the civil rights involvement the state of Tennessee revoked the charter of the original institution in 1962. At the heart of Horton's philosophy and the Highlander program was a belief in the power of education to effect profound changes in society. By working with the knowledge the poor of Appalachia and the South had gained from their experiences, Horton and his staff expected to enable them to take control of their own lives and to solve their own problems. John M. Glen's authoritative study is more than the story of a singular school in Tennessee. It is a biography of Myles Horton, co-founder and long time educational director of the school whose social theories shaped its character. It is an analysis of the application of a particular idea of adult education to the problems of the South and of Appalachia. And it affords valuable insights into the history of the southern labor and the civil rights movements and of the individuals and institutions involved in them over the past five decades.

Memoirs of the Life and Work of Philip Pearsall Carpenter Russell Lant Carpenter, 1880 Knowledge Management for Competitive Advantage During Economic Crisis Ordoñez de Pablo, Patricia, Turró, Lluís Jovell, Tennyson, Robert D., Zhao, Jingyuan, 2014-09-30 Strategy management has always been a crucial business aspect that a company must understand to remain successful in the business world. However, there are a number of different approaches that a company can employ in order to differentiate themselves from the competition. Knowledge Management for Competitive Advantage During Economic Crisis brings together the various approaches that affect the superiority of a company's organizational performance and the gains they can make over their competitors. By focusing on concepts such as organizational learning and intellectual capital, this book is an indispensable reference source for researchers, practitioners, graduate students and business managers interested in understanding what approaches are necessary to ensure superior organizational performance.

Paths Not Taken Henry R.

Winkler,2000-11-09 Distinguished historian Henry Winkler examines the changing and often contradictory views that characterized the British Labour party's approach to foreign policy from the end of World War I through the 1920s. He documents the progression from Labour's general indifference toward international issues before World War I to its almost total rejection of the prevailing international order after the war to its eventual grudging acceptance of the need to work for international cooperation through existing institutions. In the early 1920s the Labour party began to abandon its earlier positions of pacifism and class struggle in favor of a more pragmatic approach to foreign affairs as party leaders recognized the possibility that they might one day come to power. Central to the shift in policy were such leaders as J R Clynes, Norman Angell, Arthur Henderson, Hugh Dalton, Philip Noel Baker, and Will Arnold Forster, who rejected traditional policies and who supported the League of Nations and more tentatively collective security. According to Winkler these positions might have offered a viable alternative to the ruling Conservative party agenda had they not been undermined by the disintegration of the entire European order in the 1930s.
