Terrorist Within:

Terrorist in Search of Humanity Faisal Devji, 2019-12-01 Faisal Devji argues that new forms of militancy such as the actions of al Qaeda are informed by the same desire for agency and equality that animates other humanitarian interventions such as environmentalism and pacifism To the militant victimized Muslims are more than just symbols of ethnic and religious persecution they represent humanity's centuries long struggle for legitimacy and agency Acts of terror therefore are fueled by the militant's desire to become a historical actor on the global stage Though they have yet to build concrete political institutions militant movements have formed a kind of global society and as Devji makes clear this society pursues the same humanitarian objectives that drive more benevolent groups Terrorism in the United States, 1988 Figure of the Terrorist in Literature and Visual Culture Michael C. Frank, Maria Flood, 2023-05-29 The contemporary preoccupation with terrorism is marked by a curious paradox whereas the topic has been ubiquitous in public discourse since the late twentieth century the voices of terrorists themselves are usually silenced Is the terrorist the quintessential proscribed or tabooed figure of our times as cultural anthropologists Joseba Zulaika and William A Douglass have suggested The present volume is the first to approach the tabooing of terrorists from an interdisciplinary and comparative perspective Covering a broad geographical scope it explores how different media forms such as novels fiction and non fiction films or comic books frame and make sense of the figure of the terrorist do they reinforce the terrorism taboo or do they find ways of circumventing it Each contribution asks how factors such as ideological agenda religious identity ethnicity and gender impact the way the perpetrators of political violence are conceived in different historical moments and cultural contexts Symbolism in Terrorism Jonathan Matusitz, 2014-09-16 The symbolic value of targets is what differentiates terrorism from other forms of extreme violence Terrorism is designed to inflict deep psychological wounds on an enemy rather than demolish its material ability to fight The September 11 2001 attacks for example demonstrated the power of symbolism The World Trade Center was targeted by Al Qaeda because the Twin Towers epitomized Western civilization U S imperialism financial success modernity and freedom The symbolic character of terrorism is the focus of this textbook A comprehensive analysis it incorporates descriptions definitions case studies and theories Each chapter focuses on a specific dimension of symbolism in terrorism and explains the contexts and processes that involve the main actors as well as the symbolism of both the purposes and targets of terrorism Also discussed are new religious movements which represent another important aspect of terrorism such as Aum Shinrikyo the Japanese cult that used sarin gas in the Tokyo subway in 1995 Over forty areas of symbolism are covered throughout the chapters including physical and non physical symbolism linguistic symbolism the social construction of reality rituals myths performative violence iconoclasm brand management logos semiotics new media and the global village This allows for an in depth examination of many issues such as anti globalization honor killing religious terrorism suicide terrorism martyrdom weapons female terrorism public communication visual motifs and cyberspace Main concepts
