

Gender equality

Hello everyone, and thank you all for being here. For those who don't know me, my name is Mehdi, and I'm a student of English at the faculty of Ben M'sik.

Today, I would like to talk to you about gender equality. It is a topic that concerns every one of us as a society, and we will see why by the end of this presentation.

The definition you presentation will show three main points. The first will be defining what gender equality is. Then, I will explain why we need gender equality in our society. Lastly, I will see what possible solutions we have to achieve gender equality.

My presentation will be brief, but we will have some time at the end dedicated to answer all of your questions.

Gender equality is the state of equal rights of women to resources and opportunities regardless of gender, including economic participation and decision-making. This means that gender has no influence a person's opportunities and other aspects of life.

Women and girls represent half of the world's population, and therefore also half of the potential. But, unless gender equality permits cooperation and integrates social progress.

This brings me to the end of my first point.

Developed countries are less collective. They have higher rates of anti-social behaviour and violence. Countries with gender gender equality are more connected. They prosper and healthier and have better well-being.

We need gender equality urgently. Gender equality prevents violence against women and girls. It is essential for economic prosperity. Countries that value women and men as equal are safer and healthier. Gender equality is a human right.

This brings me to the next question.

To achieve gender equality ... we can make effort but we have to be sufficient to value and the respect ... we cannot succeed when half of us are held back. Thank you.
