Text Level Year R Developing Literacy:

Primary English Curriculum Guide Christine Moorcroft, Ray Barker, 2013-11-26 First Published in 2001 The purpose of this curriculum guide is to help student teachers and newly qualified teachers to make a start on learning how to become competent teachers of English Despite the emphasis given in training courses to the teaching of English newly qualified teachers often feel underprepared for it and frequently mention their concerns about this These concerns can be partly explained by a general lack of confidence in this key area and partly by widespread media and political criticism of the teaching of literacy It is also because it is often difficult for a student to make the connection between observation of key teaching strategies and his or her own personal practice Sentence Level Christine Moorcroft, 1999 This activity book for Year R Literacy Hour is one of a series covering the sentence level objectives in the National Literacy Strategy framework for teaching from Year R to Year 6 It is photocopiable and aims to develop children's grammatical awareness includes activities which focus on sentence construction the roles of different kinds of words and punctuation promotes independent work has extension activities which reinforce and develop what the children have learned and includes notes for teachers

Resources in Education, 1990-07 Focus on Reading Esther Geva, Gloria Ramírez, 2016-09-27 Focus on Reading aims to help teachers develop a deep understanding of the multiple skills and factors involved in second language reading development for second or foreign language learners aged 5-18 It equips teachers with practical skills for the effective teaching and assessment of second language reading to students with different learning needs The book features key research studies on reading comprehension considers examples from real classroom practice and provides activities to help teachers relate the content and objectives to their own teaching context Additional online resources at www.oup.com/elt_teacher for Esther Geva is Full Professor in the Department of Applied Psychology and Human Development at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Gloria Ramírez is Associate Professor in the Faculty of Human Social and Educational Development at Thompson Rivers University British Columbia Developing Literacy Ray

Barker, Christine Moorcroft, 2000 Through 50 activities using fiction non-fiction and poetry this book intends to help Year 1 children achieve the text level learning objectives outlined in the National Literacy Strategy It aims to develop children's reading skills and ability and to plan and structure their writing The activities are designed for use with texts already in schools therefore no new text resources are required The other two graded Developing Literacy activity books in this series cover Word and Sentence Emerging Literacy: Unlocking Instruction for Every Child James McTaggart, James

Cook, Rebecca Castelo, Jennifer Pickering, 2024-11-25 Being able to read and write with ease does not just open up imagination and learning it also helps us to thrive and cope in a world increasingly based on complex information from coding to utility bills Everyone wants children to make the best start with literacy but despite the existence of evidence-based programmes of instruction some do not respond as hoped at first or show a fade in learning in later school years This book is about why that happens and what we can do about it Drawing on research and the wide expertise of its authors it sets out how lifelong literacy is based on crucial aspects of early child development and how these can be assessed and improved in classrooms The book focuses on five core emerging literacy skills that underpin successful learning for children concepts of print phonological awareness oral language working memory and executive function and pencil control Chapters Guide the reader on how to build the foundations of lifelong literacy as well as easy to do unintrusive means to assess the different strengths and gaps that learners have Explore how teaching and learning can be adjusted so that all can learn and make progress Contain inexpensive and playful but effective and practical ways to develop the skills in an ordinary classroom or home Are accompanied by a downloadable practical toolkit of resources to use with children Educators who use this book and reflect on and adapt its ideas will be more confident in what they are doing with an enriched understanding of why it fits the children they are educating It will be crucial reading for early years educators primary classroom practitioners educational psychologists and speech and language therapists

Developing Literacy Sentence Year Two Christine Moorcroft,1999 This activity book for Year 3 Literacy Hour is one of a series covering the sentence level objectives in the National Literacy Strategy framework for teaching from Year R to Year 6 It is photocopiable and aims to develop children s grammatical awareness includes activities which focus on sentence construction the roles of different kinds of words and punctuation promotes independent work has extension activities which reinforce and develop what the children have learned and includes notes for teachers

The Development of Reading Skills Thomas H. Carr,1985 Focusing on how children learn to read in a language they have previously only spoken this book illustrates the skill theory of reading development which encompasses both new perceptual processes and modified but familiar integrative cognitive processes of language comprehension The chapters discuss the following aspects of learning to read 1 phonemic analysis spelling and reading 2 literacy background and reading development in a second language 3 knowing words and understanding texts 4 discourse structure and mental models 5 the impact of classroom activities on beginning reading development 6 using component skills analysis to integrate findings on reading development and 7 bridging the gap between theory and practice in reading The final chapter lists several journals that publish high quality research on reading and a number of books that provide systematic introduction to the area of reading Hth
